APPOINTMENTS TO THE OFFICE OF JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT

THE JUDICIAL AND LEGAL SERVICE COMMISSION wishes to advise that the matters hereunder constitute its general policies and procedures relating to the above.

Puisne Judges— Qualification for Appointment

Puisne Judges are appointed by the President acting in accordance with the advice of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission. They are selected from suitably qualified persons who have been admitted to practice as Attorneys-at-law in Trinidad and Tobago, or called to the Bar of England and are of not less than ten years standing.

Nature of the Post

Puisne Judges exercise the jurisdiction prescribed by the relevant statutes and are under the administrative direction of the Chief Justice.

Appointment Process

The Commission in making an appointment will normally consider for selection individuals who are aged between 40 and 57 years. Though not exhaustive, the criteria to which the Commission has regard in selecting individuals for appointment are listed hereunder.

Professional Competence	Integrity	Temperament	Experience
Legal knowledge and training	Honesty Fairness	Courtesy Humility	Length and nature of law practice
Intellectual and analytical ability	Ethical standards Independence	Emotional Balance Decisiveness	Length and nature of exposure to court practice and procedure
Mature and Objective Judgment	Commitment to Public Service	Authority	Understanding of people and society
Communication skills		Social awareness	Public and community service
Organisational skills		Receptivity to ideas	Previous service in a judicial or quasi-judicial capacity
Interest in developing the law		Ability to listen Reliability	Specialization Publications (if any)

Appointments of Puisne Judges are made by the Commission after consideration of applications made to it by suitably qualified individuals. Applicants are required to—

- (a) Apply in writing
- (b) Supply an up-to-date resumé
- (c) Provide references
- (d) Attend an interview

Applications are directed to the Secretary of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission.

From time to time, applications may be solicited by advertisement published in daily newspapers. All applications however, whether or not made in response to such advertisements are considered by the Commission who decide whether or not the credentials of the applicant justify calling him/her for an interview. If after interview an applicant is deemed suitable for appointment but there is no vacancy at the time, his/her name is kept on file pending the occurrence of a vacancy.

Judges of the Court of Appeal

The qualifications required by law for appointment to be a judge of the Court of Appeal are—

- (a) service as a judge of the High Court for not less than three years; or
- (b) not less than 15 years standing as an attorney admitted to practice in Trinidad and Tobago or as a member of the Bar of England.

The same criteria used in appointing puisne judges are also applicable to the appointment of judges of the Court of Appeal, though it is true to say that there is a difference in the weighting given to some of the criteria. This is a reflection of the difference in the demands made on an appellate judge as compared with a judge of first instance. Integrity is of prime and equal importance in both cases but of the other criteria, Professional Competence assumes a greater importance in the case of appointments to the Court of Appeal.

Normally appointments to the Court of Appeal are made from the High Court Bench but the Commission may appoint an outstanding candidate from outside the Judiciary. As between High Court judges, seniority i.e., length of service as a judge is taken into account, but is not the only or the governing factor.

B. PHILLIPS
Secretary,
Judicial and Legal Service Commission
