Vision Statement

The Commission will be the premier environmental court in the region setting the trend in environmental decision-making and the utilisation of case management methodology and court and information technology.

406—Continued

Functions of the Environmental Commission

The functions of the Environmental Commission are a direct corollary of its specific jurisdiction under the Environmental Management Act, 2000. This is set out in Section 81(5) of that Act and includes jurisdiction to hear and determine:

- (a) Appeals from decisions or actions of the Environmental Management Authority (“EMA”) (as specifically authorized under the Environmental Management Act, 2000);
- (b) Applications for deferment of decisions made under Section 25 (for the EMA to undertake emergency response activities) or under Section 41 (to designate environmentally sensitive areas or environmentally sensitive species);
- (c) Applications by the EMA for the enforcement of any Consent Agreement or any final Administrative Order;
- (d) Administrative civil assessments;
- (e) Appeals from the designation of environmentally sensitive areas or environmentally sensitive species by the EMA;
- (f) Appeals from a decision by the EMA under Section 36 of the Environmental Management Act, 2000 to refuse to issue a Certificate of Environmental Clearance or to grant such Certificate with conditions;

Effects of Functions of the Environmental Commission on Members of the Public:

The work of the Environmental Commission impacts directly and indirectly on members of the public as well as future generations of citizens of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. The Commission in its judgements and orders elucidates the principles by which the EMA and members of the public are to be guided in seeking to comply with the Environmental Management Act, 2000 and the subsidiary legislation made thereunder. The Commission also has a statutory duty to encourage and promote the use of alternative dispute resolution, being any mechanism for resolving disputes other than by way of litigation.
