Effect of functions on members of the public

The primary function of the Public Transport Service Corporation (PTSC) is to provide a safe, adequate, economic and efficient public transportation system adapted to the needs of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. The other functions of the Public Transport Service Corporation (PTSC) are more particularly delineated in sections (8) and (9) of the Public Transport Service Act.

As the sole Statutory Corporation responsible for the provision of public transportation the services of the Public Transport Service Corporation extend to urban and densely populated areas through the operation of City Services in Port of Spain and San Fernando and Express Commuter Services (ECS) and Transit Services along the North/South and East/West corridors. The Public Transport Service Corporation also provides a service to rural communities in which regard the Corporation liaises with resident village councils.

The Corporation facilitates school transport and interacts with Principals, School Supervisors, the Ministry of Education and the Community Police. The Corporation provides a service to old age pensioners and holders of passes issued by the Ministry of Social Development with whom the Corporation interfaces periodically.

The Corporation also provides a service to the disabled community and communicates with the Local Chapter of the Disabled People's International. The Corporation holds itself out for hire or reward by way of charters.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Public Transport Service Corporation (PTSC)

How to Request Information:

- General Procedure

The Public Transport Service Corporation's policy is to respond to all requests, both written and oral, for information. However, in order to enjoy the rights given by the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the request must be in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) available at the Corporate Services Division and/or on website address www.foia.gov.tt for information that is not readily available to the public.

- Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to

The Corporate Secretary
Public Transport Service Corporation
Railway Buildings
South Quay
Port of Spain
Ph: 623-2341-4 ext. 204 Fax: 625-5342

249—Continued

▪ Details in the Request.

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If sufficient information is not provided clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to compose your request or what details to include, communicate with the designated officer (see section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

Requests not handled under the FOIA

- A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information, which is readily available in the public domain, either from the Public Transport Service Corporation or from another public authority.

▪ Retrieving Documents

Subject to the provisions of the FOIA Act. The Public Transport Service Corporation is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in our possession, custody or power or we can retrieve them from storage. Information stored in the National Archives or another storage center, will be retrieved if possible in order to process your request.

Prior to the commencement of the Freedom of Information Act, 1999 old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may, therefore be impossible. Various laws, regulations and manuals give the time periods for keeping records before they may be destroyed.

▪ Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note that the Public Transport Service Corporation is not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- (b) Perform research for you.

249—Continued

Time Limits▪ General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days from the date the request was received for determination of your request for access to documents. If we fail to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. We will try diligently to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, we will acknowledge your request and advise you of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, you may wish to call or write to confirm that we have received the request and to ascertain its status.

▪ Time Allowed

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days from the date the request was received as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, you will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies if you so request.
