GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) 1999

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF PUBLIC UTILITIES 2010

In compliance with Section 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 1999

In accordance with Sections 7, 8, and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 1999, the Ministry of Public Utilities is required to publish a statement setting out certain information for the benefit of the public.

The Act gives members of the public:

- 1 A legal right for each person to access information held by the Ministry of Public Utilities;
- 2 A legal right for each person to have official information relating to him/her amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading;
- 3 A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding applicant's request for information under the FOIA;
- 4 A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

Section 7 Statements

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

Function and structure of the Ministry of Public Utilities

Mission statement

The mission of the Ministry of Public Utilities is to facilitate the delivery of affordable and quality public utilities through a committed, resourceful team of professionals in close collaboration with all partners.

The Ministry of Public Utilities has a staff of 93 persons and is headed by the Minister of Public Utilities, who has responsibility for policy matters as well as the general direction and oversight of the Ministry. The Permanent Secretary is the financial and administrative Head of the Ministry. The Ministry of Public Utilities has 12 responsibility centres, 10 of which are internal to the Ministry, and two (2) are external to the Ministry.

Responsibility Centres internal to the Ministry:

- i. Human Resource Services Division The functions which are carried out under this Division are human resource management, administrative support services and finance and accounts.
- ii. Economic Research, Policy and Planning Division This Division is responsible for research and development, policy analysis, technical advisory, integrated planning and sectoral restructuring. This Division conducts its work through four (4) Units, namely:
  - The Research Unit
  - The Water Sector Management Unit
  - The Communications Sector Management Unit, and
  - The Electrification Sector Management Unit.
- iii. Legal Services Division The functions of this Unit include providing legal advice to the Ministry, liaising with other legal counsels in the public and private sectors with respect to the Ministry's legal business, advancing the Ministry's legislative agenda and providing instructions to the Chief State Solicitor and the Solicitor General on Court matters pertaining to the Ministry.
- iv. National Social Development Programme (NSDP) Secretariat This Secretariat manages the National Social Development Programme which is a Government-funded social programme designed to facilitate the delivery of water, street lights and electricity services to deprived and under-developed communities in the country.
- v. Sectoral Programmes and Projects Unit (SPPU) This Unit is responsible for strategic programme and project development and management (including capital projects), sectoral project monitoring, risk management, and project reporting.
- vi. Customer Service Unit This Unit is responsible for ensuring that there is greater efficiency in the Ministry's service delivery system.
- vii. Information System/Information Technology Unit This Unit is responsible for managing the Information Systems and Information Technology portfolios of the Ministry, as well as providing the necessary IT support as required.

645—Continued

- viii. Communications Unit This Unit has responsibility for developing and implementing the Ministry's communication strategy in support of Government's plans, programmes and initiatives.
- ix. Monitoring and Evaluating Unit This Unit is responsible for the design and implementation of monitoring and evaluation systems for the Ministry, consistent with Government's Vision 2020 agenda and approved policies.
- x. Internal Audit This Department is responsible for ensuring that the system of accounting as prescribed by the Ministry of Finance is established, implemented and maintained in the Ministry. The Department also has to ensure that all financial records of the Ministry are complete and accurate, and that the assets of the Ministry are safeguarded and can be properly accounted for.

Responsibility Centres external to the Ministry:

i. Meteorological Services Division

This Division is responsible for providing information on current weather events; issuing weather forecasts, bulletins and warnings; and providing and storing climate data. Information is provided to the general public, the media, the aviation industry, insurance companies, building contractors and local, regional and international agencies.

ii. Electrical Inspectorate Division

This Division has responsibility for the following areas:

- Inspection and certification of all wiring and electrical installations to ensure that they are safe to the consumer
- Licensing of electricians
- Licensing of Cinema Operators (Projectionists)
- Fire and accident investigations with the intent of determining whether a fire was due to an electrical fault.

Effect of Functions on Members of the Public

All the services provided by the Ministry of Public Utilities, namely, water, electricity, wastewater, solid waste, postal and telecommunications, positively impact the lives of all persons in the country as well as all sectors of the economy, since these services contribute to the basic infrastructure upon which all human and economic development is based, measured and sustained. At present, Trinidad and Tobago is on a growth path towards developed country status by the year 2020, and developments in the utility services are pivotal to attaining this Vision.

Section 7 (1) (a) (iii) Material prepared for publication or inspection

This section is not applicable.

Section 7 (1) (a) (iv) Literature available by subscription

This section is not applicable.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Ministry of Public Utilities How to Request Information:

General Procedure

Our policy is to answer all requests for information, both oral and written. However, in order to exercise your rights under the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if your request for information is refused), you must make your request in writing.

645—Continued

You must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) available at the Ministry's Library and the Business Services Unit, for information that is not readily available to the public.

Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to the Designated Officer of the Ministry (see Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

Details in the Request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with our Designated Officer.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information which is readily available to the public, either from this Ministry or from another public authority, e.g. brochures, pamphlets, reports etc.

Responding to your Request

Retrieving Documents

The Ministry of Public Utilities is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in our possession or we can retrieve them from storage. Information stored in the National Archives or other storage centre will be retrieved in order to process your request.

Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply. Please note we are not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write a new programme so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- (b) Perform research for you.

Time Limits

General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for determination of your request for access to documents. If we fail to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. We will try diligently to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, we will acknowledge your request and advise you of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, you may wish to call or write to confirm that we have received the request and to ascertain its status.

Time Allowed

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, you will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)
