Public Statement of the Trinidad and Tobago Securities and Exchange Commission

In compliance with Sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act, 1999 (FOIA).

In accordance with sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act, 1999 (FOIA) the Trinidad and Tobago Securities & Exchange Commission (“the Commission”) is required by law to publish the following statements, which list the documents and information generally available for public scrutiny.

The FOIA gives members of the public a legal right:

- (1) For each person to access information held by the Commission;
- (2) For each person to have official information relating to himself/ herself amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading;
- (3) To obtain reasons for adverse decisions made by the Commission regarding an applicant’s request for information under the FOIA;
- (4) To complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for judicial review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

SECTION 7 Statement 1:

SECTION 7(1) (a) (1)

Functions and Organisation of the Commission

Mission

To protect investors, promote and enable the growth and development of the securities industry by nurturing fair, efficient and transparent securities markets, cooperating with other regulators and mitigating systemic risk.

Functions of the Commission

The Commission was first established, by the Securities Industry Act (SIA) in 1995 and continued under the Securities Act 2012 (SA) as a body corporate to regulate the securities market in Trinidad and Tobago.

Some of the Commission's main functions, as outlined in Section 6 of the SA are to:

- Advise the Minister of Finance on matters related to the securities industry;
- Maintain surveillance over the securities market and ensure orderly, fair and equitable dealings in securities;
- Register, authorize or regulate, in accordance with the SA, self-regulatory organisations, securities companies, brokers, dealers, traders, underwriters, issuers and investment advisers and control and supervise with a view to proper standards of conduct, and professionalism in the securities business;
- Protect the integrity of the securities market against any abuses arising from the practice of insider trading;
- Create and promote such conditions in the securities as may seem to it necessary, advisable or appropriate to ensure the orderly growth and development of the capital market;
- Educate and promote an understanding by the public of the securities industry and the benefits, risks, and liabilities associated with investing in securities;
- Ensure compliance with the Proceeds of Crime Act, any other written law in relation to the prevention of money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism or any other written law that is administered or supervised by the Commission.

Powers of the Commission

For the purpose of the discharge of its functions, the Commission has power pursuant to Section 7 to, amongst other things:

- (a) Register and regulate market actors in accordance with the SA;
- (b) Formulate principles for the guidance of the securities industry;
- (c) Take enforcement action against any person for failing to comply with the SA;
- (d) Do all things and take all actions, which may be necessary, expedient, incidental or conducive to the discharge of any of its functions and the exercise of its powers under the SA

Structure of the Commission

The SA, 2012 provides for the appointment of no less than five and no more than nine Commissioners to the Board of the Commission. The present Board consists of a Chairman and five Commissioners appointed by the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago for a period of three (3) years.

The Commissioners are drawn from amongst persons with expertise in legal, financial, business or administrative matters. One of these persons must be an attorney of at least ten years standing.

Responding to requests

- Retrieving documents

The Commission is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in our possession or we can retrieve them from storage.

- Furnishing documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to construct it. Instead we will furnish the best copy possible and note the quality in our reply.

Please note that the Commission is not compelled to do the following

- (a) Create new documents
- (b) Perform research for the applicant

Time Limits

- General

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than thirty days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, you will be provided with copies, or if you so request, permitted to inspect the document/s.

Fees and refunds

Once fees for access to documents have been prescribed under the FOIA, you will be entitled to receive the documents within seven days of payment of the relevant fee.
