FORM 2

(Section 17)

IMPACT STATEMENT FOR BUSINESS

The impact statement for business (ISB) gives you the opportunity to set out the impact that a crime has had on the business such as direct financial loss and wider impacts, e.g., operational disruption or reputational damage. The Court will take the statement into account when determining sentence.

In this statement you should not provide an opinion or recommendation on the sentence or sanctions that the Court should use. This is for the Court to decide. You should limit the information you give in this statement to the impact this particular crime has had on the business, rather than providing information on how any previous criminal activity may have affected the business (unless, for example, this crime results from the repeat offending of the same offender). You should not restate the facts of the offence or offer criticisms of the accused.

The business should consider carefully who to authorize as the representative to make the statement on its behalf. Once you have completed this form, you should return it to your police contact.

A person making an ISB on behalf of a corporation ("the duly authorized representative") shall be authorized to do so on its behalf. The duly authorized representative may be required to answer questions or be cross-examined on the ISB in Court.
