- Residential Electrification Assistance Programme (REAP) brochures
- Newspaper advertisements (Ministerial vacancies, Ministerial messages and statements)

Members of the public can also visit our website for additional information at: www.mpu.gov.tt

Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Ministry of Public Utilities

The following procedures are to be utilised when accessing documents from the Ministry of Public Utilities, in accordance with Section 7 (1) (a) (v) of the FOI Act.

(a) General Procedure

The Ministry's policy is to respond to all requests for information, both oral and written. However, in order to exercise the rights under the FOI Act (for example, the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the applicant must make the request in writing.

The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents), available at the Customer Services Unit and the Ministry's Library, for information that is not readily available to the public.

(b) Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of the request, it should be addressed to the Designated Officer of the Ministry (see Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If applicants are unsure of how their request should be written or what details should be included, they should communicate with the Ministry's Designated Officer.

MINISTRY OF PUBLIC UTILITIES UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT 2019—Continued

(d) Requests not handled under the FOI Act

A request under the FOI Act will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information which is readily available to the public, either from this Ministry or from another public authority, e.g. brochures, pamphlets, reports, etc.

(e) Retrieving Documents

The Ministry of Public Utilities is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession or can be retrieved from storage. Information stored in the National Archives or other storage centres will be retrieved in order to process the requests.

(f) Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information the Ministry has in its possession, custody or power. The Ministry is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If a legible copy of a document cannot be released, the Ministry may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply. Please note the Ministry is not compelled to do the following:

- Create new documents; or
- Perform research for the applicant.

(g) Time Limits

The FOI Act sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for the determination of a request for access to documents. The Ministry is required to grant the request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days, as required by Section 15 of the FOI Act. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, the applicant will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

MINISTRY OF PUBLIC UTILITIES UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT 2019—Continued

Should the Ministry fail to meet this deadline, the FOI Act gives the applicant the right to proceed as though the request has been denied. The Ministry will diligently seek to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing the request may take longer than the statutory limit, the Ministry would acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Ministry has received the request and to ascertain its status.

(h) Fees and Charges

Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies or copies in some other form, such as on a tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred by duplication of the said material. Similarly, where documents in the public domain are made available to a member of the public, the Ministry may charge duplication fees in accordance with its normal replication policy.

Designated Officers in the Ministry of Public Utilities

The following are the Designated Officers charged with the responsibility for obtaining documents on request by the public in accordance with Section 7 (1) (a) (vi) of the FOI Act.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Electrical Inspectorate Division.

How to Request Information:

General Procedure:

Our policy is to answer all requests for information, both oral and written. However, in order to exercise your rights under the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the request must be made in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) which is available at any of the four Offices of the Electrical Inspectorate Division, for information that is not readily available to the public.

MINISTRY OF PUBLIC UTILITIES UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE

Addressing Requests:

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to the Chief Electrical Inspector (see section 7 (1) (a) (vi))

Details in the Request:

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with our Designated Officer (see section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

Request not handled under the FOIA:

A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information, which is readily available to the public, either from the Electrical Inspectorate Division or from another public authority.

Responding to your Request

Retrieving Documents:

Prior to the commencement of the Freedom of Information Act 1999 old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may therefore not be possible. Various laws regulations and manuals give the time periods for keeping records before they may be destroyed. For example, The Exchequer and Audit Act: Chap: 69:01.

Furnishing Documents:

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note we are not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- (b) Perform research for you.

Time Limits

General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for determination of your request for access to documents. If we fail to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. We will try diligently to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, we will acknowledge your request and advise you of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, you may wish to call or write to confirm that we have received the request and to ascertain its status.

Time Allowed

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, you will be permitted to inspect the document and/or be provided with copies.

Fees and Refunds

The Freedom of Information Fees and Charges Regulations prescribe the fees related to the search, retrieval and provision of documents. You are entitled to receive the documents/s within seven days of payment of the relevant fee. If we fail to provide the information within the seven-day period, you are entitled to a refund of the fees paid in addition to free access to the documents/s requested.

Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)

Officers in the Electrical Inspectorate Division are responsible for:

- (1) The initial receipt of and action upon notices under section 10;
- (2) Requests for access to documents under section 13; and
- (3) Applications for correction of personal information under Section 36 of the FOIA.
