and it gives the public the opportunity to take preventative measures to avoid personal or property damage. The public forecast, which is issued daily, allows the public to plan their daily schedules around expected weather events.

Companies and agencies make use of climatological data in the design of buildings, drainage, infrastructural development and environmental impact assessments.

The public has no direct involvement in policy formation. Note that the Meteorological Services Division is part of the Public Service and is therefore subject to any Government shift in policy, which itself may result from public lobby.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Meteorological Services Division

How to Request Information:

- General Procedure

Our policy is to answer all requests for information, both oral and written. However, in order to exercise your rights under the FOIA (for example, the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the request must be in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents) which is available at the Rawinsonde Building located in Piarco, for information that is not readily available to the public.

The Form may be posted, hand-delivered or faxed. Where the application is sent via email, this should be followed by the submission of a hardcopy version.

- Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to the Designated Officer of the Meteorological Services Division (see Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

- Details in the Request.

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with our Designated Officer.

- Requests not handled under the FOIA

TIME LIMIT

▪ General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for determination of your request for access to documents. If we fail to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. We will try diligently to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, we will acknowledge your request and advise you of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, you may wish to call or write to confirm that we have received the request and to ascertain its status.

▪ Time Allowed

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, you will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

Responding to your Request

▪ Retrieving Documents

The Meteorological Services Division is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in our possession or can be retrieved from storage. Prior to the commencement of the Freedom of Information Act, 1999 old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may therefore be impossible. Various laws, regulations and manuals give the time period for keeping records before they may be destroyed. For example, The Exchequer and Audit Act, Chap. 69:01.

▪ Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note we are not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- (b) Perform research for you.

▪ Fees and Refunds

The Freedom of Information Fees and Charges Regulations prescribe the fees related to the search, retrieval and provision of documents. You are entitled to receive the document/s within seven (7) days of payment of the relevant fee. If we fail to provide the information within the seven-day period, you are entitled to a refund of the fees paid in addition to free access to the document/s requested.
