Section 7 StatementsSection 7 (1) (a) (i)*Function and Structure of the Ministry of Tourism:-

The Ministry of Tourism's mission is to formulate tourism policy and strategy and to guide, regulate, oversee and foster the sustainable development and promotion of the tourism sector through effective public, private and community partnerships, so as to enhance its contribution to the economic and social progress of Trinidad and Tobago.

The Ministry of Tourism was established on 10 November, 2003. It comprises a staff of 51 established officers, 13 Contract Officers, 34 short term officers and is headed by the Honourable Randall Mitchell, Minister of Tourism. The Ministry of Tourism is divided into Units, as depicted in the following Organizational Chart hereto displayed.

The Mission of the Ministry of Tourism is:

To fully develop Trinidad and Tobago's tourism industry by the sustainable development and aggressive promotion of an innovative, differentiated, high value, internationally competitive visitor experience, supported by strong brand recognition, public and private sector partnership and a positive cultural transformation. (2009).

The Vision of the Ministry of Tourism is:

By 2020 tourism in Trinidad and Tobago will contribute significantly to the GDP, through job creation and increased revenues, driven by a uniquely differentiated internationally competitive product, complemented by comprehensive, fully functional physical infrastructure, modern competitive institutional framework and supported by the people of Trinidad and Tobago. The sector will be anchored by properly marketed flagship products with brand names that are globally well-known. (2009).

The Ministry of Tourism is comprised of the following Units:-

Core Units:

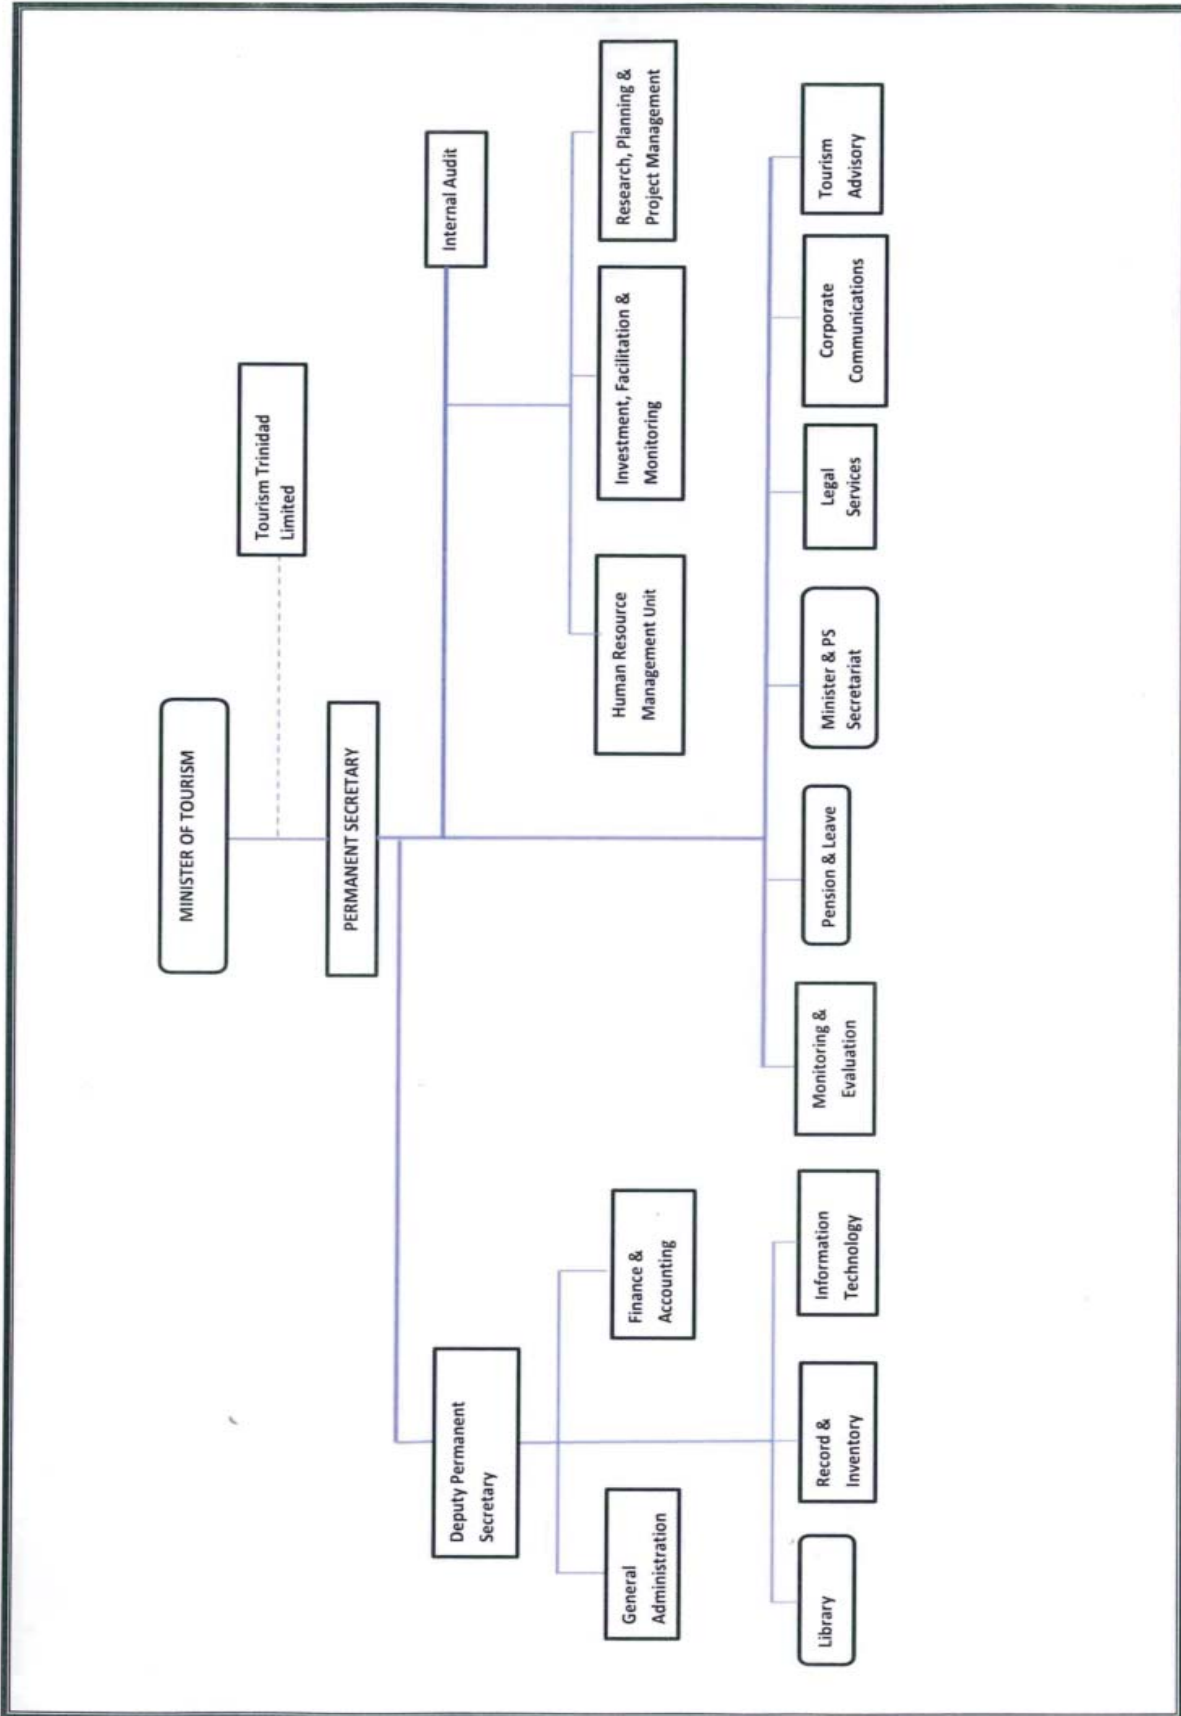

- Investment Facilitation and Monitoring
- Monitoring and Evaluation
- Project Management and Facilities Unit
- Research and Planning
- Tourism Policy and Advisory

Support Units:

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)Functions of the Units of the Ministry of Tourism:-*CORE UNITS

The Investment Facilitation and Monitoring Unit is primarily responsible for the facilitation of investment activities within the tourism sector through the administration of the Tourism Development Act 2000. In addition, the Unit is responsible for monitoring of the investment incentives offered and its related activities and overseeing financing mechanisms which have been established to increase the competitiveness of the industry. These functions are facilitated through the timely processing of applications for incentives and the issuance of interim approval, additional interim approval and final approval of tourism projects. This exercise is to be carried out in collaboration with the Tourism Trinidad Limited (TTL).

The Unit also plays a role in Education and Awareness and works alongside the Communication Unit in this respect. Additionally, the Unit provides technical advice to the Permanent Secretary and Minister and also has a reporting role.

The Monitoring and Evaluation Unit has the responsibility for the development, implementation and maintenance of a Results-Based Monitoring and Evaluation Management System at the Ministry, and for monitoring and evaluating effectiveness of spend on developmental projects, in alignment with desired outcomes

The Project Management and Facilities Unit is a core unit in the Ministry of Tourism managing the development and implementation of upgrade works to its sites and attractions. The Unit also provides oversight for the Facilities Management Function at the five (5) sites vested under the Ministry of Tourism.

The Research and Planning Unit plays a key role towards achieving the Ministry's mandate of facilitating the development of the tourism industry in Trinidad and Tobago, so as to increase its contribution to the country's economic and social development. The Division is involved in research and data collection to facilitate the planning and policy formulation process. The Division also facilitates and executes a number of Public Sector Investment Programme (PSIP) projects, and has a monitoring and control function as it relates to the PSIP. The Division also provides technical advice to the Permanent Secretary and Minister and also has a reporting role.

The Tourism Advisory Unit works with stakeholders in Trinidad and Tobago's tourism industry to formulate policies that guide and ensure the sustainable development of the tourism sector. The Unit collaborates with stakeholders, State Agencies and other Ministries to ensure that the needs of the local tourism sector are considered in all areas of policy development.

Section 7 (1) (a) (iv)Literature Available by Subscription:-

The Ministry of Tourism has no literature available by way of subscription.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Ministry of Tourism:-*General Procedure

In order to have the rights given to applicants by the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if your request for official documents is refused), you must make your request in writing. The applicant must therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for access to Official Documents which is available from the Designated Officer of the Ministry of Tourism or it may be downloaded from the website www.foia.gov.tt). The relevant information that must be provided to the Ministry includes:

- Name of applicant (full name preferred)
- Contact information
- Information requested and format to provide the information
- Date of request
- Signature of applicant
- Applications should be addressed to the Designated Officer of the Ministry (see Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF TOURISM—2019—CONTINUED

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If you are not sure how to write your request or what details to include, communicate with our Designated Officer/s. The applicant will be contacted within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the request by the Ministry (that is, the received stamp date) and the applicant will be notified by the Designated Officer that the request has been received and is being considered. After determining if the request can be made available to the applicant (approval), the applicant is informed and given a time period in which the information will be disclosed. If it is determined that the request cannot be disclosed (refusal) then the applicant is informed of the refusal and the rights of the applicant according to Section 38A and 39 of the FOI Act.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

In accordance with Section 12 of the FOI Act, requests under the FOIA will not be processed for the information that is asked, which is readily available to the public, either from this Ministry or from another public authority, for example brochures, pamphlets, reports etc.

Responding to your RequestRetrieving Documents

The Ministry of Tourism is required to furnish copies of official documents only when they are in our possession or we can retrieve them from storage. Information stored in the National Archives or another storage centre, will be retrieved in order to process your request.

Note

Prior to the commencement of the Freedom of Information Act, 1999 old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may therefore be impossible. Various laws, regulations and manuals give the time periods for keeping records before they may be destroyed e.g. the Exchequer and Audit Act Chapter 69:01.

Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply.

Please note we are not compelled to do the following:

- Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- Perform research for you.
