ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE, LAND AND FISHERIES

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE,
LAND AND FISHERIES—CONTINUED

PARTICULARS OF THE ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE, LAND AND FISHERIES:

Agricultural Planning Division

The core functions of this Division are to:-

1. Coordinate and oversee the determination of a consistent set of goals and objectives for the development of the agricultural sector;
2. Analyze policies and projects at the sectoral and national levels;
3. Formulate, monitor and evaluate policies, plans, programmes and projects;
4. Facilitate agricultural trade negotiations at the bi-lateral and multi-lateral levels;
5. Coordinate and manage the annual planning process, as well as, the programming and evaluation of the Ministry's Development Work Programme and Budget, and the management of the Ministry's Technical Assistance portfolio; and
6. Collect, collate, store, analyze and disseminate economic and social statistical data and information.

Agricultural Services Division

The core functions of this Division are to:-

1. Produce high quality, disease free planting material of selected commodities (vegetable and fruit) for sale to the farming community and the general public thereby contributing to improving national food and nutrition security;
2. Expand and conserve germplasm collections of key strategic crops of agricultural importance in live gene banks and/or cold storage for the benefit of the present and for future generations; and
3. Provide technical advisory services/support to farmers/public on various aspects of plant propagation and production through the Division's outreach programme which includes participation in exhibitions, field days, station tours, lectures and method demonstrations.

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE,

Animal Production and Health Division

The core functions of this Division are to:-

1. Assist in the formulation and implementation of policies, plans and programmes designed for the livestock sub-sector;
2. Facilitate the import or export of animals and animal products;
3. Implement programmes to prevent the introduction of new diseases, control or eradicate animal diseases of economic importance to this country, as well as, diseases transmitted to humans through animals and unwholesome animal products;
4. Maximize livestock production through the provision of improved animal genetics and the demonstration of production systems;
5. Assist in the conservation of desirable genetic material of livestock;
6. Provide technical support to the farming community for improved animal production; and
7. Provide technical support services and document appropriate technology for sustainable livestock production.

Engineering Division

The core functions of this Division are:-

1. Access Roads
 - The objective of the Access Roads programme is to rehabilitate and maintain roads used by farmers to access their farmlands. In some cases these roads are impassable by motor vehicles. This programme ensures that farmers have easy and efficient access to move fertilizer, pesticides, planting materials, etc. and also enables them to transport their produce from farm to market.
2. Water Management
 - The Water Management Section seeks to identify and make available to the farmers, at various State lands projects, suitable irrigation water and to provide some measure of flood control.
3. Building and Structures
 - This Section caters to the building infrastructural needs of the Ministry's various offices. Designs, drawings and tender documents are prepared and project management services are rendered when works are being executed. This section has a key role in the development programme of the Ministry.

259—Continued

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE,

4. The Soils Laboratory

- The Soils Laboratory is involved in soil investigations and materials testing which is an essential preliminary step in the conduct of all Civil engineering works. The purposes of such investigations are to:-
 - assess the general suitability of the site for the proposed works;
 - enable the engineers of the Engineering Division to prepare appropriate designs; and
 - perform on-going relevant field tests during the construction phase to achieve the specifications/quality of works required by the Engineering Division.

5. Surveys

- The primary role of the Surveys Section is to provide technical assistance to access roads, the Soils Laboratory and the Water Management Programme. This technical assistance may include:-
 - topographical surveys of state agricultural lands for the purpose of pond design and construction;
 - topographical surveys of roads;
 - assisting the Soils Laboratory with accurately positioning their test holes using maps which show their position in relation to the project area;
 - monitoring of levels for Road Construction thereby ensuring that the various thickness for the sub-base, base and sealing layers as detailed in the contract document are executed on site by the contractors; and
 - engineering levels on irrigation channels in order to provide data to determine the drainage flow and capacity of channels for the purchase of pumps and the design of drainage flow and capacity of channels for the purchase of pumps and the design of sluice gates.

6. Divisional Administration

- To provide administrative, accounting and clerical support to the Directorate and the Heads of Section of the Engineering Division, in managing the Division's human resources, finances and goods and services.

7. Operations and Maintenance

- This Section is comprised of four sub-sections: Central Workshop, Facilities Maintenance and Pumps. The role and core functions are to:-
 - provide repair and maintenance services to the Division's vehicles and equipment, also to the rest of the Ministry;

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE,
LAND AND FISHERIES—CONTINUED

- facilitate transportation services to all Divisions in the Ministry of Agriculture, Land and Fisheries; and
- provide general repair and maintenance services to building and facilities in the Engineering Division.

Extension Training and Information Division

The core functions of this Division are to:-

1. Provide farmers, potential farmers, communities, youth and other interested persons (clients) with information on aspects of agriculture and related issues. These are intended to solve problems by providing appropriate learning opportunities. The eventual aim is to increase efficiency of production leading to increased profitability of the enterprise and improved livelihoods of clients;
2. Support the Regional based extension service by reviewing extension programmes (when required) and providing supporting technical materials including techpacks, factsheets, manuals, other printed material and audio-visual material;
3. Conduct staff training for Divisional, Regional and other Extension staff;
4. Plan and conduct programmes in support of the overall policy objectives and the Action Plan of the Ministry; and
5. Represent the Ministry by participating in exhibitions, field days and other activities as requested.

Fisheries Division

The core functions of this Division are to:-

1. Assess, manage and conserve the marine fisheries resources of Trinidad and Tobago;
2. Manage and develop aquaculture;
3. Provide specialized information services;
4. Provide administrative and extension services to the fisheries and aquaculture sector;
5. Provide training to fishers, persons involved in fish processing and marketing and aquaculturalists (fish farmers) in collaboration with the Caribbean Fisheries Training and Development Institute;

259—Continued

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE,

6. Administer marine fisheries and aquaculture incentive programmes;
7. Administer and enforce fisheries legislation;
8. The inspection of consignments of imports and exports of live fish for commercial, personal and scientific purposes;
9. The strengthening of fishers organizations to promote community empowerment, business development and other opportunities for growth in the sector;
10. The implementation of state obligations under regional and international fisheries and fisheries-related conventions and agreement; and
11. Participation in the EMA's process for granting of Certificates of Environmental Clearance.

Forestry DivisionVision

Trinidad and Tobago embraces a vision of national development in which forests are abundant, ecologically healthy, biologically diverse and contributing to the wellbeing of all people and to the national economy in current and future generations.

Mission

To fulfil this vision, forests will be sustainably managed; the people of Trinidad and Tobago will have a good understanding and appreciation of the forests and their values; the economic and the intrinsic; ecological, social, cultural and spiritual/religious values of forests will be considered in national development and physical planning and will be included in national accounting; and there will be effective management of forests, with an efficient use of resources with equitable participation of stakeholders.

Goal

The goal of the policy is the sustainable management of the forest resources of Trinidad and Tobago to provide for the social, economic, ecological, cultural and spiritual needs of present and future generations; contribute to the sustainable development of the country; enhance the quality of human life, while at the same time protecting biological diversity and ecological processes.

The Forestry Division's Contributions to National Development

There are three major National Policies that support the functions of the Forestry Division, they are as follows:-

- (i) The National Forest Policy (2011);

259—Continued

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE,
LAND AND FISHERIES—CONTINUED

- (ii) The National Protected Areas Policy (2011) and;
- (iii) The National Wildlife Policy.

The new legislative support for these policies is a work in progress.

The core functions of this Division are to:-

- Ensure sustainable Timber and Non-timber Production;
- Promote Wildlife and Biodiversity Conservation;
- Facilitate Recreation and Ecotourism;
- Improve Watershed Management;
- Protect Watersheds for Environmental Services and Climate Change Mitigation;
- Conduct Environmental Education Programmes;
- Execute Community and Urban Forestry Projects;
- Enhanced Food and Nutrition Security; and
- Participate in Multilateral Environmental Agreements

The Forestry Division has been organized in subsections in order to optimize its human capital to execute the above stated functions. All units are interrelated and contribute to the overall efficiency of the Division. These subdivisions include:-

1. The Forest Resource Inventory and Management (F.R.I.M.) Section

This unit generates the evidence that informs decision making with respect to the overall management of the Forest Resources. Activities such as resource mapping, forest inventorying, regulating sale of timber and implementing forest research projects are all conducted by this unit. Data collection, compilation and analysis form significant components of the operations of FRIM. This section collaborates with global entities such as the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), International Tropical Timber Organization (ITTO), and United Nations Forum on Forests (UNFF).

2. Wildlife Section

The Wildlife Section has the responsibility for executing wildlife monitoring, research and conservation programmes. This unit is also tasked with upholding international conventions such as the Ramsar Convention on Wetlands of International Importance, Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Flora and Fauna (CITES), and the Convention on Biodiversity.

3. Forest Fire Protection Unit

The Forest Fire Protection Unit continues to monitor and coordinate the Forestry Division's Fire Protection Programme. The major components of this programme are planning, publicity/education, fire detection and suppression, and fire investigation and report.

259—Continued

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE,
LAND AND FISHERIES—CONTINUED4. National Parks Section

The National Parks Section of the Forestry Division manages ten (10) park areas including six (6) Natural areas and four (4) Historic Sites. The Section focuses on routine maintenance and upkeep of the Parks and dissemination of Education and Interpretative Programmes. There is a current Global Environment Facility (GEF) project concerning the Improved Management of Protected Areas that is geared at implementing international best practice in the management processes in these sites.

5. Community-Based Forestry and Agroforestry Incentive Programme

This project was implemented to assist in arresting and reversing the cycle of deforestation and land degradation on private lands. In this programme, incentives for forestry operations were included. These incentives have increased the interest in and implementation of forestry – related activities on private lands. The Forestry Division assists in the following ways:

- provision of technical assistance to farmers, community groups and other organizations;
- processes incentives to assist farmers in establishing and maintaining plots;
- monitors and assess projects; and
- conducts basic training in forestry and Agro-forestry practices.

6. Forestry Information Unit

The main areas of work for the Forestry Information Unit (F.I.U.) are Educational Lectures, the Forest Fire Prevention Campaign, Exhibitions, Seminars/Workshops and Newsletter Production.

7. Conservancies

There are six conservancies in Trinidad, namely South East, South Central, South West, North East, North Central and North West. Some of the main functions and services of the conservancies are:

- sale of forest produce on State lands and Forest Reserves;
- nursery operation for seedling production for Divisional use and sale to the public;
- establish forest plantations and reforestation activities;
- patrol and protect Forest Reserves from encroachment; enforce Forest Laws;
- provide technical advice regarding proper land use practices; and
- issue removal permits for logs on private lands;

8. National Reforestation and Watershed Rehabilitation Programme (NRWRP)

This entity is now managed by the Forestry Division. By a process of open tendering community organizations and groups are being contracted to conduct reforestation work on denuded lands. This programme is currently being challenge a decision if a request for information is refused), a request must be made in writing.

The appropriate form must be completed (Request for Access to Official Documents) for information that is not readily available in the public domain and is not available in our Library and Reception/Lobby area.

Officers Responsible for receipt of Requests and Notices

Requests must be addressed to the Designated FOIA Officer or Alternate FOIA Officer of the Ministry of Agriculture, Land and Fisheries.

Details in the Request

Specific details of the request will assist in readily identifying and locating the records requested. If there is insufficient information, further clarification will be requested from the applicant. If the applicant is not sure how to write his/her request or what details to include, the Designated Officer can be asked to assist.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

Please note that requests for information that is currently available in the public domain either from the Ministry or from another public source such as brochures and pamphlets etc. will not be entertained under the FOIA.

Responding to Requests

The Ministry of Agriculture, Land and Fisheries is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession or those that can be retrieved from storage. If the information required is stored in the National Archives or another storage centre, it will be retrieved in order to process the applicant's request.

Furnishing Documents

- (i) The Ministry is required to furnish copies of information in its possession, custody or power. The Ministry is not compelled to create new documents. For example, it is not required to write a new programme to enable a computer to print information in the format preferred by the applicant;
- (ii) The Ministry is not required to perform research for the person requesting the information;
- (iii) Only one copy of a document is required to be furnished; and

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE,

- (iv) If a legible copy of a document to be released is unavailable there will be no attempt to reconstruct the document. Instead, the best copy possible will be provided and its quality noted in the reply.

Time Limits

General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) days after the day on which the request was made (as stated in section 15 of the FOIA) for determination of the applicant's request for access to documents. If the deadline is not met, the FOIA allows the right to proceed as if the request has been denied. The Ministry will try diligently to comply with the time limit, but if it appears that processing a request may take longer than the statutory limit, an acknowledgement of the request and advice will be provided on its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be misaddressed or misrouted, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Ministry has received the request and to ascertain its status.

Time allowed

An early determination whether to grant a request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than thirty (30) days after the day on which the request was made as required by section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, the applicant will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

Section 7(1) (a) (vi) – Officers in the Ministry of Agriculture, Land and Fisheries are responsible for:-

- (1) The initial receipt of and action upon notices under section 10;
- (2) Requests for access to documents under section 13 and;
- (3) Applications for correction of personal information under section 36 of the FOIA.
