THE REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE (AMENDMENT) (NO. 2)
BILL, 2020

Explanatory Notes

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

This Bill seeks to amend the Representation of the People Act, Chap. 2:01, in order to provide for the registration of political parties and to make provision for related matters. The Bill contains eleven clauses.

Clause 1 of the Bill would provide the short title of the Bill and would also provide that the Act shall come into operation on such date as the President may by proclamation appoint.

Clause 2 of the Bill would provide for the interpretation of the words “the Act” to mean the Representation of the People Act, Chap. 2:01.

Clause 3 of the Bill would amend section 2 of the Act by inserting new definitions.

Clause 4 of the Bill would amend section 3 of the Act by inserting a new subsection (1A) to expand the functions of the Commission.

Clause 5 of the Bill would amend the Act by inserting after Part II, two new Parts—Parts II A and II B.

The new Part II A would provide for political party registration, deregistration, mergers and coalitions.

New clause 30A would provide for the establishment of a division of the Elections and Boundaries Commission (the Commission) to be known as the Office of the Registrar of Political Parties.

New clause 30B would establish the Register of Political Parties.

New clause 30C would empower the Registrar of Political Parties to make corrections to the Register.

New Clause 30D would provide that an association of persons or an organisation shall not operate or function as a political party unless it has been registered in accordance with the provisions of the Act. Additionally, political parties are to be registered in order to field candidates for an election.

New Clause 30E would provide that the leader or the authorised representative of a political party that proposes to function as a registered political party, shall apply to the Commission to be registered. The section would also set out the information which an application for registration must include.

New clause 30F would provide that an application for registration would not be accepted by the Commission during specified periods.

New clause 30G would provide for the withdrawal of an application for registration by a political party.

New clause 30H would set out the procedure to be followed where an application for registration of a political party is made and the Commission invites objections from any person to the registration of the applicant party.

New clause 30I would set out the procedure to be followed by the Commission when in receipt of an objection to the registration of a political party.

New clause 30J would set out the grounds on which the Commission may refuse to register a political party.

New clause 30K would set out the procedure to be followed where the Commission is in receipt of a defective application for registration.

New clause 30L would provide that the Commission may cause an investigation to be carried out in order to ascertain the truthfulness or accuracy of the information submitted by a political party with an application for registration.

New clause 30M would provide that where an application for registration is considered to have been withdrawn, the applicant party may submit a new application.

New clause 30N would set out the procedure to be followed where the Commission, having approved an application for registration, registers a political party.

New clause 30O would provide that the effective date of registration of a political party shall be the date on which the Commission issues a certificate of registration.

New clause 30P would provide that a political party shall not be registered, unless it provides that Commission with a written scheme which sets out the arrangements for regulating the financial affairs of the party for the purposes of the Act.

New clause 30Q would set out the procedure to be followed by the Commission where a political party's financial scheme is submitted for approval.

New clause 30R would provide that where a political party is registered under the Act, the treasurer of the party shall provide the Commission with a statement regarding the party's assets and liabilities.

New clause 30S would set out the minimum number of officers a registered political party or an applicant party must have.

New clause 30T would outline the disqualification criteria for officers of a political party.

New clause 30U would set out the minimum number of members, who are electors, a registered political party or an applicant party must have.

New clause 30V would provide that where a writ for a Parliamentary election is issued, a registered political party must provide a statement confirming the validity of the information concerning the party in the Register of Political Parties.

New clause 30W would provide that a registered political party shall provide the Commission with a statement, annually, confirming the validity of the information concerning the party in the Register of Political Parties.

New clause 30X would indicate how a registered political party may be removed from the Register of Political Parties.

New clause 30Y would provide that the information in the Register of Political Parties may be corrected, amended or altered.

New clause 30Z would provide for the reporting requirements of independent candidates.

New clause 30AA would provide for instances where false information has been provided or there is obstruction to the registration of a political party.

New clause 30AB would provide for the misrepresentation of the status of a political party.

New clause 30AC would allow for the voluntary deregistration of a political party.

New clause 30AD would provide that, after meeting with a registered political party concerning its proposed deregistration, the Commission may proceed to deregister the party where it is satisfied that the circumstances of the party fall within the grounds for deregistration.

New clause 30AE would provide for the notice of deregistration.

New clause 30AF would provide the circumstances to avoid deregistration.

New clause 30AG would provide for a meeting between the Commission and the political party concerning deregistration.

New clause 30AH would provide for the Commission to make a decision concerning deregistration.

New clause 30AI would provide that the Commission shall not deregister a registered political party during a campaign period.

New clause 30AJ would provide that the Commission shall, without delay, cause a notice of deregistration of a registered political party and of its registered associations to be published in the Gazette and at least one daily newspaper.

New clause 30AK would provide that the effective date of deregistration of a registered political party would be the date on which the notice of deregistration appears in the Gazette.

New clause 30AL would provide for the preservation of the name of a political party for a specified period after its deregistration.

New clause 30AM would provide for the continuation of the registered status of a deregistered political party for a specified period in order to comply with financial reporting requirements under the Act.

New clause 30AN would provide for appeals against deregistration.

New clause 30AO would set out the procedure to be followed where two or more registered parties apply to become a merged political party.

New clause 30AP would set out the criteria which must be satisfied in order to replace the name of merging political parties with the name of a merged party in the Register of Political Parties.

New clause 30AQ would provide that a merger of political parties takes effect on the date on which the Commission amends the Register of Political Parties. The provision also sets out the consequences of a merger with respect to the financial obligations of the merged parties.

New clause 30AR would provide that where two or more political parties are merged and included in the Register of Political Parties, notice of the merger shall be published in the Gazette and at least one daily newspaper.

New clause 30AS would set out the procedure to be followed where two or more registered parties enter into a coalition agreement.

New clause 30AT would set out the procedure to be followed where a registered political party seeks to make any changes or alterations to its name, identifying symbol, slogan or colour.

New clause 30AU would set out the procedure to be followed where there is an objection to a proposed change or alteration of a registered political party's name, identifying symbol, slogan or colour.

New clause 30AV would set out the procedure to be followed where the Commission makes a preliminary determination that the change or alteration applied for by a registered political party should not be made to the Register of Political Parties.

New Part IIB would provide for Accounts, Returns, and Audit of registered political parties.

New clause 30AW would provide that a registered political party is, inter alia, under a duty to keep and maintain proper accounting records, file an annual financial report with the Commission and notify the Commission of all financial institutions in which the party maintains accounts.

New clause 30AX would provide that a registered political party is under a duty to submit to the Commission an annual financial report prepared by a registered public accountant and a statement showing the sources of funds of the party.

New clause 30AY would provide that the accounts of a registered political party may be audited by an independent auditor appointed by the Commission.

- (b) the ground of his objection; and
- (c) any facts and reasons upon which he relies in support of the objection.

(4) Except in such exceptional circumstances as may be determined by the Commission in any particular case, an objection under subsection (3) shall not be considered by the Commission if it is made after the expiration of the period stipulated in the notice under subsection (2).

Treatment of objection to
application for registration

30I. (1) Where the Commission receives an objection under section 30H then, unless pursuant to that section consideration of the objection is not permitted, the Commission shall—

- (a) notify the authorised representative of the applicant party of the objection, including the information referred to in paragraphs (b) to (c) of section 30H(3), and request a written response thereto; and
- (b) grant the applicant party fourteen days from the date of receipt of the notification under paragraph (a), within which to respond.

(2) The Commission may, after treating with the objection pursuant to subsection (1), cause an inquiry to be made to ascertain whether to—

- (a) uphold the objection, or
- (b) accept the response of the applicant party and reject the objection.

(3) Where the applicant party fails to respond to the objection within the time specified under subsection (1)(b) or such longer period as the Commission may at the request of the applicant party allow, the Commission may refuse to register the political party.

Grounds for refusal of
registration

30J. (1) The Commission may refuse to register an applicant party under this Part on any of the following grounds:

- (a) the application was not made in accordance with the provisions of the Act or any Rules or Regulations made under the Act;
- (b) the particulars submitted with the application are—
  - (i) inaccurate in a material way and there is a failure to carry out the required corrections within the time specified under section 30K(1)(b) or such longer period as the Commission may, in writing, determine in any case;

- (ii) defective and the defects are not corrected within the time specified in section 30K(1)(b);
- (c) the applicant party has failed to respond in writing to objections made pursuant to section 30H; or
- (d) the name of the applicant party, the abbreviation of the name or the symbol that it wishes to use—
  - (i) is obscene or offensive;
  - (ii) may incite hatred or violence; or
  - (iii) is so similar to the name of a registered political party as to be likely to mislead or confuse members of the public or is otherwise likely to result in confusion.

(2) Where the Commission is considering two or more applications for registration under this Part and the slogan, colour or name of one of the applicant parties—

- (a) is the same as the identifying slogan, colour or name of any one or more of the other applicant parties; or
- (b) so closely resembles the identifying slogan, colour or name of any one or more of the other applicant parties, as the case may be, as to be likely to mislead or confuse members of the public or is otherwise likely to result in confusion, then, the Commission may, after taking into account the totality of the circumstances, including the history of each applicant party and the time at which each applicant party submitted its application, determine which applicant party, if any, shall have the right to use the identifying slogan, colour or name and if it unable to so determine, the Commission shall, in writing, notify the authorised representative of each applicant party of its refusal to register each applicant party as a political party.

Defective
applications

30K. (1) Where an application for registration under section 30E is defective, the Commission shall, no later than fourteen days after receipt of the application—

- (a) notify the authorised representative of the applicant party in writing of the defect; and
- (b) grant the applicant party fourteen days from the date of receipt of the notice under paragraph (a), or such longer period as the Commission may in writing determine, to correct the defect.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), an application is defective if—

- (a) it is incomplete; or

(b) the particulars submitted pursuant to section 30E are inaccurate.

(3) Where there is a defect in an application for registration as a political party and the defect is not cured, within the fourteen days specified in subsection (1)(b) or such longer period referred to therein, the application shall be considered to have been withdrawn and the Commission shall notify the applicant party in writing of the withdrawal.

Investigation
by
Commission

30L. (1) The Commission may cause an investigation to be carried out to ascertain the truthfulness or accuracy of the particulars submitted with an application pursuant to section 30E.

(2) Where, pursuant to an investigation under subsection (1), the Commission makes a preliminary finding that particulars submitted with the application are materially false, the Commission shall—

(a) notify the authorised representative of the applicant party in writing of the preliminary finding; and

(b) grant the applicant party fourteen days, or such longer period as the Commission may in writing determine, within which to respond to the Commission.

(3) The Commission shall not register an applicant party where—

(a) after considering the response of the applicant party, the Commission is satisfied that the particulars submitted with the application for registration are materially false; or

- (b) the applicant party fails to respond to the preliminary finding within the time granted under subsection (2)(b) or such longer period referred to therein.

Re-application
after withdrawal

30M. Where under section 30K(3), an application is considered to have been withdrawn, the applicant party may submit a new application for registration.

Registration
of political parties

30N. (1) The Commission shall register a political party if it is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant party has met the requirements of the Act or any Rules or Regulations made under the Act;
- (b) the name and any short-form name, abbreviation or logo used or proposed to be used by the applicant party is not similar to the name, short-form name, slogan or logo of a registered political party that it would, in the opinion of the Commission, be likely to be confused with it; and
- (c) the applicant party has provided the information required under this Part and that the information is accurate.

(2) Upon registration of an applicant party as a political party, the Commission shall—

- (a) notify the authorised representative of the applicant party of its registration as a political party under the Act; and
- (b) issue to the registered political party a certificate of registration in the prescribed form.

(3) Where the Commission registers a political party under the Act, it shall publish the fact of the registration of the political party in the Gazette and at least one daily newspaper in circulation in Trinidad and Tobago.

(4) A notice of registration of a political party shall specify—

- (a) the name;
- (b) any identifying symbol, slogan or logo; and
- (c) any identifying colour proposed to be used by the political party.

Effective date of registration 300. The effective date of registration of an applicant party as a political party under the Act shall be the date on which the Commission issues the certificate of registration under this Part in respect of the political party.

Financial structure of political party 30P. (1) A party shall not be registered unless it provides the Commission with a written scheme which sets out the arrangements for regulating the financial affairs of the party for the purposes of the Act.

(2) The scheme shall be approved by the Commission in writing and must provide the particular information relating to—

- (a) the organisation of the party;
- (b) the division with responsibility for the financial affairs and transactions of the party;
- (c) the number of accounting units;
- (d) whether there are any affiliate organisations with responsibility for its own financial affairs;
- (e) the name of the central organisation and each other affiliate organisation, by reference to the constitution of the party, and their respective accounting units; and
- (f) such other information as may be prescribed by Rules or Regulations.

(3) For the purposes of this section, “constitution”, in relation to a political party, means the document or documents by which the structure and organisation of the party is determined.

Approval of financial scheme by Commission 30Q. (1) Where a scheme is submitted by a party for the approval of the Commission, the Commission may either—

- (a) approve the scheme; or

(b) give the party notice requesting a revision to the scheme as it thinks fit.

(2) If, under subsection (1), the Commission requests the party to submit a revised scheme, it shall specify—

(a) any matters which should be dealt with in the revised scheme; and

(b) any modifications which ought to be incorporated.

(3) If, at any time, after registration a party wishes to replace a scheme, for the time being approved by the Commission, it shall notify the Commission and resubmit for its approval a draft replacement scheme.

Statement of assets and liabilities

30R. (1) Within six months after becoming a registered political party, the accountable officer of a registered political party shall provide the Commission with—

(a) a statement, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, of its assets and liabilities, including any surplus or deficit, as of the day before the effective date of the registration;

(b) a report on that statement made by the registered political party's auditor to its accountable officer that contains the auditor's opinion as to whether that statement presents fairly and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles the information on which it is based; and

- (c) a declaration in the prescribed form by the accountable officer that the statement is complete and accurate.

(2) If, at any time, there is a change in the information submitted to the Commission under subsection (1), the accountable officer of the registered political party shall within thirty days of such change, notify the Commission in writing.

(3) Where the Commission receives a notification under this section, any change required as a consequence of the notification shall be made in the Register as soon as is reasonably practicable.

Minimum
number of officers

30S. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a registered political party and an applicant party shall have at least three officers in addition to the leader of the party.

(2) Only a person who is an elector and whose ordinary residence is in Trinidad and Tobago is eligible to be an officer of a registered political party or an applicant party.

(3) In the event of the death, incapacity, resignation or ineligibility of an officer of a registered political party or an applicant party, or the revocation of the appointment of one, the party shall, if the remaining number of officers is less than four, appoint a replacement within thirty days.

(4) Within thirty days after the day on which the replacement is appointed, the registered political party or applicant party shall inform the Commission of the appointment.

Disqualification of officer of a political party

30T. A person who—

- (a) is sentenced to imprisonment or is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty, whether in Trinidad and Tobago or elsewhere;
- (b) is found guilty of an offence under this Act;
- (c) is less than eighteen years of age;
- (d) is mentally ill, within the meaning of the Mental Health Act; or
- (e) is an undischarged bankrupt, having been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in Trinidad and Tobago or elsewhere,

Chap. 28:02

shall be disqualified from holding an office in a registered political party.

Minimum
number of members

30U. (1) A registered political party or an applicant party shall have at least one hundred members who are electors.

(2) On or before 1st of October of every year, a registered political party and an applicant party shall provide the Commission with the names and addresses of one hundred electors and their declarations in the prescribed form that they are members of the party.

Confirmation of information at parliamentary election 30V. A registered political party and an applicant party shall, not later than fourteen days after the issue of the writ for a Parliamentary election, provide the Commission with—

- (a) a statement certified its leader confirming the validity of the information concerning the party in the Register of Political Parties; or
- (b) if there is a change in that information, a report of the change.

Confirmation of registration information annually 30W. On or before thirty days a registered political party shall provide the Commission with—

- (a) a statement certified by its leader confirming the validity of the information concerning that party in the Register of Political Parties; and
- (b) if there is a change in that information, a report of the change.

Renewal of registration 30X. (1) A certificate of registration issued under section 30N(2)(b) is valid for a period of six years from the date of issue.

(2) A political party shall apply in the form prescribed by Regulations to the Commission for the renewal of its certificate of registration no later than one month after the certificate expires.

(3) A political party that submits an application for renewal shall pay a fee prescribed by Regulations and may continue to operate until a decision is made by the Commission.

Removal from Register 30Y. Once a political party is registered, the entry of that party may only be removed from the Register where—

- (a) the party applies to have its entry removed; or
- (b) the Commission removes the entry for failure to comply with any of the requirements of the Act.

Independent candidates 30Z. (1) A person who stands as an independent candidate for an election shall, no later than fourteen days after the close of the polls at the election, submit to the Commission a record of—

- (a) all money paid or other property transferred to him during the relevant period;
- (b) the identity of the person who paid the money or transferred the property; and
- (c) all expenditure incurred by him during the relevant period in accordance with this Act and Regulations.

(2) The following provisions apply to an independent candidate as they apply to a registered political party and for the purposes of such application, any reference to a registered political party or an officer of a registered political party shall be construed as a reference to the independent candidate:

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), it is immaterial that the money is paid or other property transferred by way of a loan or other temporary arrangement.

False
information, obstruction of Registrar of Political Parties

30AA. A person who—

- (a) for the purpose of obtaining the registration of a political party, wilfully—
  - (i) furnishes any false or misleading information;
  - (ii) makes any false declaration; or
  - (iii) forges or otherwise submits any document which he knows is false or misleading, to the Commission;
- (b) without reasonable cause, fails to furnish the Commission with any information, document or extract when required or within the time required;
- (c) obstructs the Registrar of Political Parties in the performance of his functions under this Act;

commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Misrepresentation of status 30AB. A person who, knowing that a political party is not registered—

- (a) makes any representation to the effect that the political party is registered; or
- (b) publishes any document that indicates or implies that the party is registered,

commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Deregistration of Political Parties

Voluntary deregistration of registered political party 30AC. Upon application for deregistration being jointly made in the prescribed manner by the leader and the authorised representative of a registered political party, the Commission may deregister the registered political party in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

Commission may deregister registered political party 30AD. Subject to the provisions of this Part, the Commission may deregister a registered political party—

- (a) where the party fails to—
  - (i) comply with any provision or requirement of this Part or any Rules or Regulations made under the Act;

- (ii) file with the Commission any information reasonably required by the Commission to clarify or verify the information contained in a statement or return or any other information filed by the political party under the Act;
  - (iii) submit the annual financial reports in accordance with section 30AX(1);
  - (iv) submit the financial records to the Auditor General in accordance with section 30AY(2);
- (b) where the Commission discovers any fact, which had it been known prior to the issuance of the certificate of registration, the Commission would have refused to register the political party;
- (c) where the political party has not nominated a candidate for three consecutive elections since the time of its first registration under the Act as a registered political party; or

- (d) where the political party has made any changes or alterations to its identifying slogan, colour or name, otherwise than in accordance with this Part.

Notice of proposal to deregister

30AE. (1) Where the Commission proposes to deregister a registered political party under section 30AD, the Commission shall send written notice of the proposed deregistration by prepaid post or personal delivery to the leader and the authorised representative of the registered political party, and any one of the persons so named may, within thirty days of receiving the notice from the Commission, file a written objection to the proposed deregistration.

(2) The notice under subsection (1) shall specify the reason for the proposed deregistration and the time period for—

- (a) objection to the deregistration to be lodged as specified under subsection (1); or
(b) rectification under section 30AF to be made where possible.

Avoiding
deregistration

30AF. (1) Within sixty days of receiving the notice of its proposed deregistration a registered political party may, where possible, rectify the breach specified in the notice.

(2) Where the Commission is satisfied that the breach has been rectified, it shall not deregister the registered political party.

Meeting concerning proposed deregistration 30AG. Where a registered political party files a written objection to its proposed deregistration, the Commission shall provide an opportunity for the leader and the authorised representative of the political party to meet with the Commission for the purpose of challenging the grounds for the proposed deregistration.

Decision concerning deregistration 30AH. Where a meeting is held under section 30AG and the Commission is satisfied that the circumstances of the registered political party fall within one or more of the grounds for deregistration specified in section 30AD, the Commission may deregister the political party.

No deregistration during campaign period 30AI. The Commission shall not deregister a registered political party during the period starting from the date of announcement of an election to the date of the election.

Effect of deregistration and notice of deregistration 30AJ. (1) Where a registered political party is deregistered, its registered associations are also deregistered.

(2) The Commission shall, without delay, cause a notice of deregistration of a political party and of its registered associations to be—

- (a) sent by prepaid post or personally delivered to the registered address of the political party; and
- (b) published in the Gazette and at least one daily newspaper in circulation in Trinidad and Tobago.

Effective date of deregistration 30AK. The effective date of deregistration of a registered political party is the date on which a notice of deregistration pursuant to section 30AJ(2) appears in the Gazette.

Preservation of name 30AL. For a period of thirty days after the deregistration of a political party—

- (a) no application for another political party to become a registered political party shall be accepted if the application would permit another political party to use a name, short-form name, abbreviation or logo that would, in the Commission's opinion, likely to be confused with that of the deregistered political party; and
- (b) if a new application is made for the registration of the deregistered political party under the name, short-form name, abbreviation or logo that it had at the time of its deregistration, the Commission shall not refuse the application on the ground that it does not comply with section 30O(1)(b).

Continuation of registered status for limited purposes 30AM. The accountable officer of a political party shall, within six months after the date of its deregistration, provide the Commission with—

- (a) financial reporting documents for—

- (i) the portion of its current fiscal period ending on the date of its deregistration; and
- (ii) any earlier fiscal period for which those documents have not already been provided in accordance with section 30R; and

(b) the documents referred to in sections 30AW, 30AX and 30AY for any general election for which those documents have not already been provided under that section.

Appeals 30AN. (1) A political party whose application for registration is refused under section 30J may appeal that decision to a Judge of the High Court.

(2) A political party whose renewal of registration is refused under section 30X may appeal that decision to a Judge of the High Court.

(3) A political party who is deregistered under section 30AD may appeal that decision to a Judge of the High Court.

Meger or Coalition of Political Parties

Application for merger of registered parties 30AO. (1) Two or more registered parties may, at any time other than the period beginning thirty days before the issue of a writ for an election and ending on polling day, apply to the Commission to become a merged registered political party.

(2) An application to merge two or more registered parties shall—

- (a) be certified by the leaders of the merging parties;
- (b) be accompanied by a resolution from each of the merging parties approving the proposed merger; and
- (c) contain the information required from a political party to become a registered political party.

(3) The executive of each registered political party that intends to merge under subsection (1) shall—

- (a) determine the constitution, rules, regulations and the principles which shall form the basis of the merger and the registration of the new political party; and
- (b) sign the resolution to be deposited with the Commission.

Registration
for eligible merged
parties

30AP. (1) The Commission shall amend the Register of Political Parties by replacing the names of the merging parties with the name of the merged party if—

- (a) it is satisfied that the merged party is eligible for registration under this Part;

- (b) the merging parties have discharged their obligations under the Act, including their obligations to report on their financial transactions and their election expenses and to maintain valid and up-to-date information concerning their registration; and
- (c) the application for the merger was not made in the period referred to in section 30F.

(2) The Commission shall notify the officers of the merged parties in writing whether the Register of Political Parties is to be amended under subsection (1).

Effective date of merger and consequences of merger 30AQ. (1) A merger of registered parties takes effect on the date on which the Commission amends the Register of Political Parties under section 30AP.

(2) On the merger of two or more registered parties—

- (a) the merged party is the successor of each merging party;
- (b) the merged party becomes a registered political party;
- (c) the assets of each merging party are transferred to the merged party;
- (d) the merged party is responsible for the liabilities of each merging party;

- (e) the merged party is responsible for the obligations of each merging party to report on its financial transactions and election expenses for any period before the merger took effect;
- (f) the merged party replaces a merging party in any proceedings by or against a merging party; and
- (g) any decision of a judicial or a quasi-judicial nature involving a merging party may be enforced by or against the merged party.

(3) On the merger of registered parties, any registered association of a merging party is deregistered and may transfer goods or funds to the merged party or a registered association of the merged party in the six months immediately after the merger.

(4) Any transfer referred to in subsection (3), is not a contribution for the purposes of the Act.

merger

30AR. Where the Commission amends the Register of Political Parties, the Commission shall cause to be published in the Gazette and at least one daily newspaper in circulation in Trinidad and Tobago, a notice that the names of the merging parties have been replaced in the Register with the name of the merged party.

Coalitions

30AS. (1) Two or more registered parties may form a coalition before or after an election and shall deposit with the Commission a signed agreement certifying their intention to form a coalition.

(2) A coalition agreement entered into before an election shall be deposited with the Commission at least three months before the date of that election.

(3) A coalition agreement entered into after an election shall be deposited with the Commission within twenty-one days of the signing of the coalition agreement.

(4) Each party to a coalition agreement shall remain a separate registered political party for the purposes of the Act.

(5) A coalition agreement shall set out the matters specified in the Seventh Schedule.

Changes or Alterations

Changes or alterations to identifying symbols etc.

30AT. (1) A registered political party shall not make any changes or alterations to its name or any material changes to any identifying symbol, slogan or colour except in accordance with this section.

(2) Before making any changes or alterations referred to in subsection (1), a registered political party shall apply in the prescribed form and manner to the Commission for approval of the change or alteration.

(3) The Commission shall, within fourteen days of the date of receipt of the application, cause a notice of the proposed change or alteration to be published in the Gazette and in at least one daily newspaper in circulation in Trinidad and Tobago inviting objections from any person within a period of thirty days from the date of publication of such notice concerning the change or alteration.

(4) The Commission may, in addition to inviting objections to the application under subsection (3), cause an inquiry to be made to ascertain whether the change or alteration should be approved.

(5) Any change or alteration shall be approved by the Commission within sixty days after publication of the notice under subsection (3), or such longer period as the Commission may determine, if—

- (a) any objection made to the change or alteration pursuant to subsection (3) is not upheld by the Commission;
- (b) the change or alteration is not such that, had it been part of the particulars for registration of the political party, it would have caused the application to have been refused; or

- (c) any inquiry by the Commission pursuant to subsection (4) does not satisfy the Commission that the application should be refused.

Objection to change or alterations

30AU. (1) Where the Commission receives an objection within thirty days of the publication of a notice under section 30AT(3), the Commission shall—

- (a) notify the authorised representative of the registered political party of the objection; and
- (b) grant the registered political party fourteen days within which to respond.

(2) Where—

- (a) after considering the response of the registered political party, the Commission upholds the objection; or
- (b) the registered political party fails to respond to the objection within the time specified in subsection (1)(b) and the Commission considers the objection to be persuasive, the Commission shall refuse the application to amend the Register.

Inquiry by Commission

30AV. (1) Where, pursuant to an inquiry under section 30AT(4), the Commission makes a preliminary determination that the change or alteration applied for by a registered political party should not be made to the Register, the Commission shall—

- (a) notify the authorised representative of the registered political party in writing of the preliminary determination; and
- (b) grant the registered political party fourteen days within which to respond.

(2) Where—

- (a) after considering the response of the registered political party, the Commission determines that the Register should not be amended; or
- (b) the registered political party fails to respond to the findings within the time granted under subsection (1)(b), the Commission shall refuse to change or alter the Register.

PART II B

ACCOUNTS, RETURNS AND AUDIT OF REGISTERED

Political Parties

Duty to keep accounting records

30AW. (1) The executive officers of every registered political party shall—

- (a) cause to be kept and maintained proper books, accounts and records with respect to the party which—

- (i) are sufficient to disclose, with reasonable accuracy, the financial position of the registered political party;
  - (ii) conform to internationally recognized accounting standards, principles and practices;
- (b) nominate an officer of the party to be designated as the "accountable officer", who shall—
  - (i) certify all returns and financial statements;
  - (ii) be responsible to the Commission for all financial affairs of the registered political party;
- (c) cause to be filed with the Commission an annual financial report of the registered political party; and
- (d) cause notification to be provided to the Commission of all financial institutions in which the registered political party maintains accounts and the nature and purpose of the accounts.

(2) The accounting records made for the purposes of this section shall be kept by the registered political party for at least six years from the end of the financial year in which they are made.

Duty to submit annual returns

30AX. (1) Every registered political party shall, on or before the 30th of September every year, prepare and submit to the Commission for the preceding financial year of that political party—

- (a) an annual financial report prepared by a registered chartered accountant;
- (b) a statement showing the sources of the funds of the political party.

(2) A copy of the report and of the statement made for the purposes of subsection (1) shall be kept by the registered political party for at least six years from the end of the financial year in which they are made.

(3) Every person who wilfully makes, or causes to be made, any false entry in respect of a material matter or omission from—

- (a) any report or statement under subsection (1); or
- (b) the accounting records referred to in section 30AW(1)(a), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty thousand dollars.

Audit

30AY. (1) The accounts of every registered political party shall be audited annually by the Auditor General.

(2) The Auditor General shall have access to all books of accounts, records, documents, assets and information held by a registered political party.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) precludes the Auditor General from performing a management or comprehensive audit of the operations and activities of a registered political party.

(4) On completion of any audit of a registered political party, the Auditor General shall immediately draw the attention of the Commission to any irregularity disclosed by the audit which, in the opinion of the Auditor General, is of sufficient importance to justify doing so.

(5) The Auditor General shall submit to the Commission a report on the results of the annual audit.

PART II C

STATE FUNDING OF POLITICAL PARTIES

State funding
of political
parties

30AZ. (1) Every registered political party that—

- (a) meets the requirements of section 30AW; and
- (b) meets the requirements of section 30AX(1) within one hundred and twenty days of the end of the financial year of the registered political party, shall be entitled in each financial year to receive as State funding the sums of money referred to in this section.

(2) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (6), for the purposes of this Act, the amount approved by Parliament for State funding shall be divided equally among the political parties that qualify to receive State funding.

(3) Where a registered political party has decided not to receive the moneys entitled to it under this section, those moneys shall be retained in the Consolidated Fund and accordingly shall not be available for division among other registered political parties entitled to receive State funding.

(4) A registered political party shall not receive as State funding in any financial year more than forty per cent of its income for the previous financial year.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), no account shall be taken of votes cast for any one or more persons who stood as independent candidates at an election but who subsequently form or join a political party.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, State funding shall not be available in any financial year to a registered political party that has been formed in the previous financial year by five or more Members of Parliament who contested as independent candidates or candidates of a registered political party at a general election.

(7) As soon as is practicable after the allocation of funds, the Commission shall pay to each political party the moneys it is entitled to receive pursuant to this Act, out of funds approved by Parliament for the purpose of State funding, and made available to the Consolidated Fund.

(8) Nothing in this Act shall preclude any political party from lawfully obtaining moneys or benefits from sources other than the State.

Allocation of State funding

30AAA. The funds allocated to a registered political party shall be used solely and exclusively for—

- (a) the development of the political party;
- (b) the off-setting of the operating expenses of the political party that is to say—
  - (i) its headquarters;
  - (ii) the salaries of party administrators;
  - (iii) electricity, water and telephone bills;
- (c) party recruitment and civic education;
- (d) research and policy development of the political party;
- (e) education and training of members of the political party; and
- (f) other reasonable logistical and operating expenses to strengthen the political party as a democratic institution.

Obligations of registered political party that qualifies for State funding 30AAB. (1) Every registered political party that qualifies for State funding shall—

- (a) hold elections of officers as prescribed by its constitution;
- (b) maintain and submit annually to the Commission, on the anniversary of its registration, a current list of—
  - (i) all officers;
  - (ii) all members of the executive committee or members of the party with equivalent status;
  - (iii) Members of Parliament and Councillors;
  - (iv) candidates for election or chairperson for each constituency who are in place;

7. Section 48 of the Act is repealed.

New Part IV A inserted

8. The Act is amended by inserting after Part IV, the following Part:

“ PART IV A

DONATIONS AND CAMPAIGN FINANCING

National Election Campaign
Fund

59A. (1) For the purposes of this Act, there is established a fund to be called the National Election Campaign Fund (hereinafter referred to as “the Fund”).

(2) The Fund shall be held and applied for the purpose of—

(a) accepting and receiving contributions from—

(i) individuals;

(ii) companies and other entities;

(iii) Trinidad and Tobago Diaspora groups;

(b) making contributions to candidates and registered political parties; and

(c) promoting the active participation of citizens in the electoral process.

Management of the Fund

59B. (1) Subject to the directions of the Commission, the Chief Election Officer shall be responsible for the management and administration of the Fund.

(2) Moneys in the Fund that are not immediately required for its purposes may be invested by the Commission as it thinks fit.

(3) All moneys forming part of the Fund shall, pending the investment or application thereof in accordance with the Regulations, be paid or transferred into a bank in Trinidad and Tobago registered under the Financial Institutions Act.

Chap. 79:09

Moneys constituting the Fund

59C. The Fund shall consist of—

(a) Moneys contributed to it by—

- (i) sums appropriated by Parliament;
- (ii) individuals;
- (iii) companies and other entities;
- (iv) Trinidad and Tobago Diaspora groups; and

(b) Interest and profits accruing from the investment of the moneys.

Accounts of
Fund

59D. (1) The Chief Election Officer shall cause proper accounts of the Fund to be kept, shall prepare annually a statement of accounts in a form satisfactory to the Commission and conforming to generally accepted accounting principles in Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) The accounts of the Fund shall be audited annually by an auditor appointed by the Commission.

(3) The Auditor General shall be entitled at all times to examine the accounts of the Fund.

Disbursements from the
Fund

59E. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the moneys in the Fund shall be disbursed to candidates within one hundred and eighty days after an election is held, for the purposes of reimbursing expenses incurred by the candidates in their election campaigns.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, the total amount to be disbursed to a candidate shall be determined by applying the following formula:

$$\frac{A}{B} \times C$$

where—

A is the number of votes cast for that candidate in the election;

B is the total number of votes cast in that constituency in the election;

C is the total amount allocated from the Fund to that constituency for the election, such allocation being on the basis that each constituency shall be allocated an equal amount.

(3) No moneys shall be disbursed to a candidate from the Fund unless the candidate has complied with the obligations under this Part to the satisfaction of the Commission.

(4) The total disbursement to a candidate who is qualified to receive moneys from the Fund together with any funding provided to the candidate pursuant to Part IIC of this Act, shall not exceed forty percent of the lesser of—

- (a) the total expenditure which that candidate was permitted to incur within the campaign period in accordance with section 59R; or
- (b) the actual expenditure incurred by the candidate within the campaign period, as reflected in the candidate's election return made under section 59R.

(5) A candidate may, by notice in writing to the Commission, elect not to receive moneys from the Fund in respect of expenses he incurred during the campaign period.

Contributions
by persons who have government
contracts

59F. (1) Where a person, company or other entity makes a contribution to a registered political party or a candidate, in excess of the amount prescribed in subsection (3), during the reporting period and, within two years before making the contribution, had entered into a Government contract having a contract value in excess of the prescribed value, the person, company or other entity shall declare the contribution to the Commission in the prescribed manner no later than fourteen days after making the contribution.

(2) Where a person, company or other entity makes a contribution to a registered political party or a candidate, in excess of the amount prescribed in subsection (3), during the reporting period and, within two years after making the contribution, enters into a contract having a contract value in excess of the prescribed value, the person, company or other entity shall declare the contribution to the Commission in the prescribed manner no later than fourteen days after entering into the Government contract.

(3) A person, company or other entity makes a contribution less than fifty thousand dollars or such amount as may be prescribed, to a registered political party or a candidate during the reporting period in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), shall not be required to declare that contribution to the Commission.

(4) For the purposes of this section, “prescribed value” means the amount of two million dollars.

(5) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Commission, by Order subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament, amend—

- (a) the prescribed amount in subsection (3); and
- (b) the prescribed value in subsection (4).

Tax deductible
expenses

59G. Any contribution that is made by a contributor during a reporting period, other than a contribution by an impermissible contributor or a contribution that exceeds the limits specified in section 59L, shall be regarded as a tax deductible expense for the purposes of the Income Tax Act.
