PRACTICE OF REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

Real estate business

5.(1) A person engages in real estate business if he—

- (a) auctions or negotiates the sale, exchange, purchase, lease or licensing of real property;
- (b) advertises or holds himself out as being engaged in the business of auctioning or negotiating the sale, exchange, purchase, lease or licensing of real property;
- (c) engages in property management, either as a consultant or as an agent;
- (d) takes part in the procuring of vendors, purchasers, lessors, lessees, landlords or tenants of real property; or
- (e) directs or assists in the procuring of prospects, or the negotiation or closing of transactions which result in the sale, exchange, lease or licensing of real property.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person shall not be regarded as engaging in real estate business by reason only of the fact that—

- (a) he acts for and on behalf of a client under a power of attorney for the purpose of negotiating or executing a contract, transfer or conveyance in respect of real property, provided always that he does not engage in these transactions in breach of his fiduciary duties or for personal profit;
- (b) he furnishes legal advice and services ancillary thereto in his capacity as an Attorney-at-law;
- (c) he is—
  - (i) an administrator, executor, receiver or trustee acting under or by virtue of an appointment by will or written instrument or by order of a court; or
  - (ii) an assignee, custodian, liquidator, receiver, or trustee acting under any written law;
- (d) he deals with real property of which he is an owner or a part owner;
- (e) he is a developer; or
- (f) he is employed as a salaried employee of a financial institution dealing with real estate transactions.

(3) A person engages in the business of a broker where he—

- (a) supervises a sales associate who represents a client;
- (b) receives client's money; or
- (c) manages the financial aspects of real estate business.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), a broker may engage in the business of a sales associate.

(5) A person engages in the business of a sales associate where he engages in the non-financial nature of real estate business.

Application for registration by developers

6. (1) A developer, prior to selling individual lots, shall apply on the prescribed form to be registered in the Register of Developers.

(2) A developer who fails to comply with this section commits an offence and is liable to the penalties under this Act.

Unlawful practice

7. (1) A person shall not—

- (a) practise as a real estate agent;
- (b) pass off as or willfully pretend to be a real estate agent; or
- (c) make use of any name, title or description implying that he is entitled to be recognized to act as a real estate agent, unless his name appears on the Register of Real Estate Agents.

(2) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable to the penalties set out under this Act.

PART III

REAL ESTATE BUSINESS REGISTRANTS

Application for registration by real estate agents

8. (1) A person who wishes to engage in real estate business shall apply to be registered under this Part.

(2) An application for registration under subsection (1) shall be made on the prescribed form and submitted to the Registrar General together with—

- (a) a completed AML/CFT/PF risk assessment questionnaire; and
- (b) the prescribed fee.

(3) The questionnaire referred to in subsection (2)(a) shall be in such form as may be prescribed.

(4) In this section “AML/CFT/PF” means Anti-Money Laundering/Countering the Financing of Terrorism/Financing the Proliferation of weapons of mass destruction.

- (a) is at least eighteen years of age; and
- (b) holds the prescribed qualifications.

(2) Subject to section 10, a company or a partnership may be registered as a real estate agent, upon satisfying the Registrar General that its directors or partners, as the case may be, hold the prescribed qualifications.

10. An individual is disqualified from being registered as a real estate agent where he, either as an individual, a director of a company or a partner in a partnership, as the case may be—

- (a) was convicted of an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or violence in the ten years immediately preceding the date of his application for registration, whether or not the conviction occurred in Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) was convicted of an offence under the Anti-Terrorism Act, the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Act or the Proceeds of Crime Act;
- (c) is the subject of an order or notice of a judicial authority of a country, other than Trinidad and Tobago, which prohibits him from performing the functions of an Attorney-in-fact, a real estate agent or a developer;
- (d) is the subject of extradition proceedings; or
- (e) is the subject of a bankruptcy order.

Objection to registration

11. (1) Upon receipt of an application under section 8, the Registrar General shall cause notice of the application to be published in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers in daily circulation in Trinidad and Tobago and such notice shall specify a date by which a person may object to the registration of an applicant.

(2) A person may object to the registration of an applicant by writing to the Registrar General, stating reasonable grounds for their objection.

(3) The date specified in subsection (1) shall not be fewer than ten days after the publication of the notice in the newspapers.

(4) Where the Registrar General receives an objection, he shall, within seven days of the receipt of the objection, give the applicant written notice of the objection and provide the applicant with an opportunity, of not less than seven days from the date of the notice, to respond to the objection.

(5) The Registrar General shall, within twenty-one days of receipt of an objection, decide on the merit of the objection and inform the person who made the objection as well as the applicant for registration of his decision, giving reasons in writing.

Determination of application for registration

12. (1) Where the Registrar General approves an application for registration he shall within twenty-one days of his decision—

- (a) inform the applicant;
- (b) enter the applicant's name on the relevant register; and
- (c) issue a Certificate of Registration in the prescribed form.

(2) Where the Registrar General does not approve an application for registration he shall inform the applicant of his decision and give reasons in writing, within twenty-one days of the date of his decision.

(3) An applicant who is aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar General under subsection (2) may appeal to a Judge of the High Court.
