Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Ministry of Public Utilities

The following procedures are to be utilised when accessing documents from the Ministry of Public Utilities, in accordance with Section 7 (1) (a) (v) of the FOI Act.

(a) General Procedure

The Ministry's policy is to respond to all requests for information, both oral and written. However, in order to exercise the rights under the FOI Act (for example, the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the applicant must make the request in writing.

The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents), available at the Customer Services Unit and the Ministry's Library, for information that is not readily available to the public.

(b) Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of the request, it should be addressed to the Designated Officer of the Ministry (see Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)).

(c) Details in the Request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If applicants are unsure of how their request should be written or what details should be included, they should communicate with the Ministry's Designated Officer.

(d) Requests not handled under the FOI Act

A request under the FOI Act will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information which is readily available to the public, either from this Ministry or from another public authority, e.g. brochures, pamphlets, reports, etc.

(e) Retrieving Documents

The Ministry of Public Utilities is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession or can be retrieved from storage. Information stored in the National Archives or other storage centres will be retrieved in order to process the requests.

(f) Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information the Ministry has in its possession, custody or power. The Ministry is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If a legible copy of a document cannot be released, the Ministry may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply. Please note the Ministry is not compelled to do the following:

- Create new documents; or
- Perform research for the applicant.

(g) Time Limits

The FOI Act sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for the determination of a request for access to documents. The Ministry is required to grant the request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days, as required by Section 15 of the FOI Act. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, the applicant will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

Should the Ministry fail to meet this deadline, the FOI Act gives the applicant the right to proceed as though the request has been denied. The Ministry will diligently seek to comply with the time limit. If it appears that processing the request may take longer than the statutory limit, the Ministry would acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Ministry has received the request and to ascertain its status.

(h) Fees and Charges

Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official
