MINISTRY OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT—CONTINUED

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

Function and Structure of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development

Vision of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development

The MHUD is a premier state entity facilitating the development of, and access to, healthy sustainable communities in which citizens may thrive and grow.

Mission of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development

The MHUD facilitates the development of sustainable communities through the formulation, communication and administration of Government's policy for the Housing and Urban Development sectors, in collaboration with its partners and stakeholders, for the benefit of the citizens of Trinidad and Tobago.

Function

The housing portfolio of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development involves the provision of appropriate housing and land solutions for low and middle income families through the direct construction and distribution of new homes, the development of appropriate home financing mechanisms and development of sustainable communities.

The Ministry has also placed emphasis on the maintenance of housing stock, the issue of land tenure instruments through squatter regularization, the upgrading of infrastructure in Government housing developments and the distribution of grants and subsidies to members of the public through the requisite divisions, for the purpose of improving the social conditions of poor families, enhancing the aesthetic quality of Government developments and reducing the annual national demand for new homes.

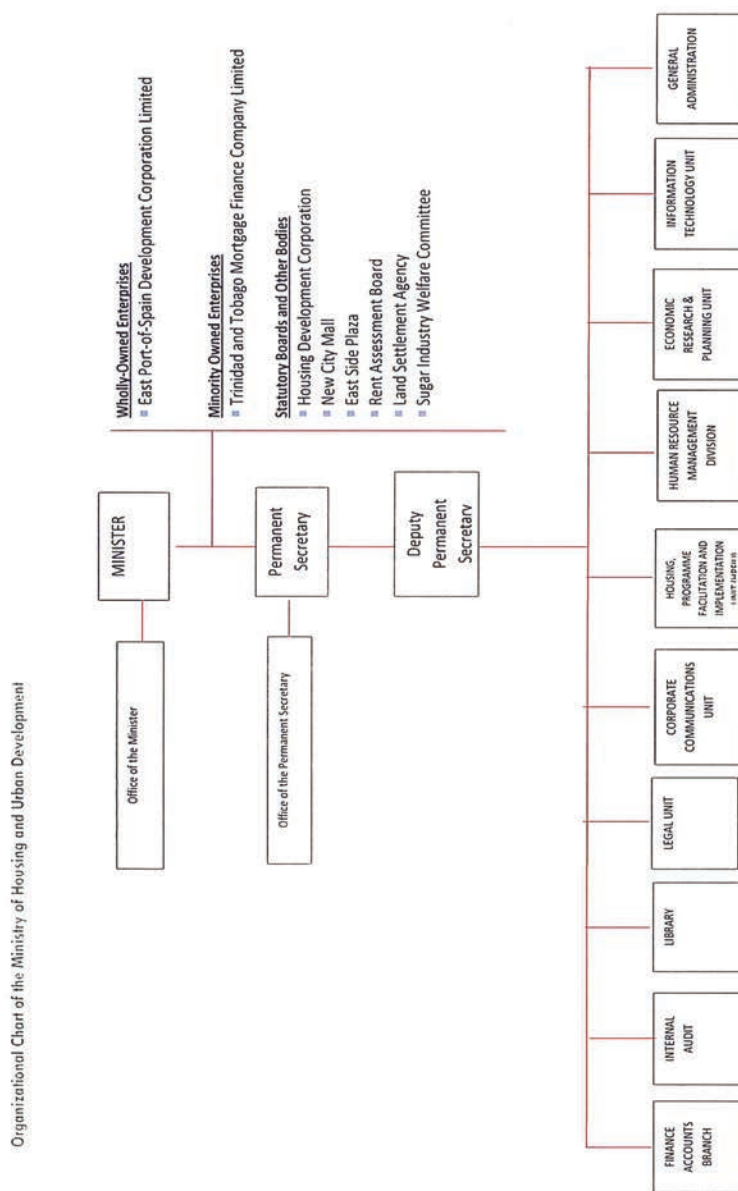

The Ministry strongly believes in education as it relates to the housing sector, and has embarked on an education drive providing relevant information on various aspects of this sector to the public.

Functions of the Divisions of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development.

Human Resource Service Division

This division is responsible for the management of the Ministry's human capital in an effective, fair, and consistent manner, so as to achieve the Ministry's strategic goals and objectives. The functions include recruitment, human resource planning, training and development, performance evaluation management, development of human resource management policies, industrial and employee relations and compensation.

General Administration/Operations

This section is responsible for the provision of support services for the Ministry, through the registry and office management functions. The Registry ensures the orderly recording and safe storage of Ministry files and documents. The office management section is responsible for the procurement of goods and services, e.g. office supplies, furniture, equipment, messenger, maid, janitorial services etc.

Economic Research and Planning Unit

The Economic Research and Planning Unit is responsible for assisting in the preparation of policies, programmes and projects in the housing sector and ensuring that these policies, programmes and projects are executed in accordance with Government's mandate.

This Unit is instrumental in monitoring the budgetary requirements of the divisions and agencies under the purview of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development. Some of the areas on which the Economic Research and Planning Unit places emphasis are as follows:

- Oversight of the implementation of the Public Service Investment Programme (PSIP);
- Preparation of annual budgets (mainly capital);
- Monitoring of the Ministry's performance under Government's Policy Framework for Sustainable Development;
- Provide data and advice on ongoing projects to the Minister/ Permanent Secretary;
- Providing comments on reports and documents (in-house or from other Ministries/agencies);

- Signature of Applicant
- Details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested.

The application should be addressed to the Designated Officer of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development (see Section 7(1)(a)(vi)). If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. An applicant who is unsure how to write a request or of what details to include, should inquire from the Designated Officer.

A request under the FOIA may not be processed to the extent that it seeks information that is readily available in the public domain, either from the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development or another public authority, or if the said information is exempted.

The Ministry of Housing and Urban Development is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession.

The Ministry of Housing and Urban Development is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If it cannot make a legible copy of the document to be released, it will not attempt to reconstruct it, instead the best copy possible will be furnished.

The Ministry of Housing and Urban Development will determine whether to grant a request for access to information as soon as practicable but not later than 30 days of the date of receipt, as required by the FOIA. Every effort will be made to comply with the time frames set out in the FOIA, but where it appears that processing a request may take longer than statutory limit, the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development will acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of its status. If the Ministry fails to meet the deadlines set out in the FOIA, the applicant has the right to proceed as if the request has been denied.

Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some other form, such as tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.
