REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO*PRACTICE DIRECTION*COURT OPERATIONS
COVID-19 PANDEMIC DIRECTIONS
WITH EFFECT FROM DECEMBER 1 2020
NO. 9

This Practice Direction is issued pursuant to Part 4 of the Civil Proceedings Rules 1998 (as amended), Part 20 of the Criminal Procedure Rules, Part 4 of the Family Proceedings Rules and Part 22 of the Children Court Rules and is applicable to the entire Judiciary of Trinidad and Tobago which includes the Supreme Court and all Summary Courts.

The objective of this Practice Direction is to provide for adequate and appropriate measures with effect from December 1, 2020 at the Judiciary of Trinidad and Tobago to, inter alia –

- (a) Ensure continued access to justice;
- (b) Promote efficiency in case flow management and court operations generally;
- (c) Safeguard the health and safety of all stakeholders of the Court, including but not limited to Judges, Masters, District Judges, judicial officers, court staff, attorneys-at-law and members of the public;
- (d) Facilitate the use of electronic alternatives to in-person activities at the Court by internal and external persons;
- (e) Ensure that appropriate administrative arrangements are made for all hearings; and
- (f) The payment of fines and the scheduling of hearings arising out of Fixed Penalty Notices issued under the Public Health [2019 Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV)] on or before December 31, 2020.

having regard to:

- (a) the Public Health regulations in place from time to time;
- (b) the Public Health policies in place;
- (c) the persistence of community spread of COVID-19 within the population;
- (d) the inherent risk to court personnel and members of the public intrinsic in in person activity at court buildings at this time; and
- (e) recent developments which have required court buildings to be closed and staff to be quarantined.

PRACTICE DIRECTION No. 9—COURT OPERATIONS—Continued

In managing cases, Judges, judicial officers and attorneys-at-law are asked to be reasonable in their demands and expectations and to take into account the challenges posed to the Judiciary as an organisation and to the country at large by the existence of a deadly global pandemic; and to be considerate of the complexities of managing in such a pandemic and the effect of individual requests, demands and expectations on the wellbeing of the rest of the Judiciary and the national community.

Accordingly, the following measures shall take effect:

EFFECTIVE DATES

This Practice Direction supersedes the Practice Direction published in Trinidad and Tobago Gazette Vol. 59 No. 182 dated October 25, 2020 titled “Court Operations Covid-19 Pandemic Directions with effect from October 26, 2020 No. 8” and shall take effect on December 1, 2020 and continue until further notice or otherwise superseded (this period).

HEARINGS TO BE CONDUCTED BY ELECTRONIC MEANS

1. The general rule is that during this period no in-person hearings shall be conducted except as otherwise provided for by these directions and all Judges and judicial officers shall conduct hearings and/or sittings of the Supreme Court and Summary Courts by electronic means only.
2. All jury trials are suspended during this period.
3. Prisoners shall not attend a court building physically during this period.
4. Children shall not be required to attend a court building physically during this period unless directed by the Court.
5. A child, a parent, guardian, or person with responsibility for a child, may contact the appropriate court office and may be required to attend a court building or Virtual Access Customer Centres physically by appointment.

TAKING OF VIVA VOCE EVIDENCE IN-PERSON

6. In managing cases and trials, Judges and judicial officers may direct a witness to give evidence from a specific location and by specific means.
7. Judges and judicial officers may direct that a witness may give evidence from the Court's Virtual Access Customer Centres or from a court building.
8. Viva voce evidence may only be taken in person at a court building in exceptional circumstances where in balancing the interests of justice and the health and safety of all concerned, the court deems it absolutely necessary to require the physical presence of the witness. In particular the following factors shall be taken into account in determining exceptional circumstances:
  - a. Where hard copy documents or physical exhibits must be tendered in evidence by a witness and there is no agreement between the parties as to the tendering of same electronically;
  - b. Where identification is a material issue in dispute and the particular witness is expected to be given leave to do an in-court dock identification; or
  - c. Where the witness has no available means to appear electronically and is unable to be accommodated at one of the Judiciary's Virtual Access Customer Centres.
9. Any witness required to give viva voce evidence in person shall be heard at pre-scheduled times, save and except for urgent matters that may arise. The court shall schedule times for in person viva voce hearings to ensure that there is no congregating of persons and will provide persons with the scheduled time for their appearance.
10. All other parties to a matter where a witness is required to give viva voce evidence in person need not be required to appear in person or in the same room or at the same location.
11. Where any witness is required to give viva voce evidence in person, the Judge or judicial officer must consult with the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court as the case may be and the Court Manager of the relevant location, before scheduling a hearing to ensure that there is adequate and appropriate space available to allow for appropriate social distancing in keeping with the room capacity standards set by the Judiciary and to maintain national health and safety requirements.
12. Judges, judicial officers, attorneys at law and the public are reminded that administrative control over:
  - a. All High Court buildings is exercised by the Registrars and the Court Managers on behalf of the Chief Justice; and
  - b. All District Court buildings is exercised by the Magistracy Registrars and the Court Managers on behalf of the Chief Justice,and entry may be refused in the interest of safety of all Court users.

13. All Judges and judicial officers through their support staff, must provide the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court and the Court Managers of the relevant location, with the names of and schedule of appearances for any person required to be in attendance at a viva voce hearing, at least 3 working days in advance of the viva voce hearing. Failure to provide adequate notice may result in persons being denied entry to the Virtual Access Customer Centres or a court building.
14. Where any witness is required to give viva voce evidence in person, at least 15 minutes shall be scheduled between each witness in the same matter and at least 20 minutes shall be scheduled between matters, bearing in mind the need for proper sanitization of rooms and equipment between witnesses.
15. The need for the presence of any member of staff in the court building for an in-person viva voce hearing will be determined by the Registrar of the Supreme Court jointly with the Court Managers and in the case of a Summary Court jointly by the Magistracy Registrar and Clerk of the Court and the Court Managers.
16. Witnesses waiting to give evidence must remain seated in the designated area until they are required in the courtroom. Once a witness is relieved by the Court, the witness must leave the court location immediately.
17. Witnesses are required to wear a mask during the course of giving evidence unless asked by the Judge or judicial officer to remove it for all or part of their evidence.
18. Each witness is required to comply with the sanitization policies of the court.

FILING OF DOCUMENTS (SUPREME COURT)

19. There shall be no manual filings at any court office and all filings shall be conducted by electronic means only.
20. A person who wishes to file an audio and or video exhibit electronically may send a request for same by emailing the request to the relevant court location or contacting the Registrar of the Supreme Court. The relevant email addresses and telephone numbers are set out in the Judiciary's E-services Court Directory.
