4. A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

Section 7 STATEMENTS

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

THE FUNCTIONS AND STRUCTURE OF THE CARIBBEAN INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE

The Caribbean Industrial Research Institute (CARIRI) was established by an Act of Parliament by the Government of Trinidad and Tobago in 1970 with assistance from the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO). The Institute is wholly owned by the Government of Trinidad and Tobago and provides technological and business support services to private and public sector organizations locally and regionally.

The Institute's mission is:

"To advance the economic and social development of Trinidad and Tobago and other countries in the Caribbean Region by providing technical and technological support, creating and transferring technology to the producers of goods and services and maintaining a positive work environment that encourages employee commitment to the financial viability and success of the organization."

The Institute's major functions include:

- Provision of technical support services to public and private industrial enterprises;

- Collection and dissemination of technical information;
- Undertaking analytical work;
- Provision of materials testing services;
- Provision of engineering services, including assistance with establishing production lines, prototype designs, and maintenance and repair problems;
- Undertaking economic and technical feasibility studies, including marketing surveys, with a view to identifying bankable projects;
- Providing environmental monitoring services inclusive of testing and consultancy,
- Provision of business support and advisory services to new and existing businesses,
- Engaging in research programmes related to the needs of Trinidad and Tobago and the Caribbean region.

The Board of Management is appointed by the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, and controls the overall direction of the Institute. CARIRI employs a workforce of approximately one hundred and ninety (190) persons and is headed by a Chief Executive Officer.

Section 7 (1) (a) (iv)Literature available by subscription

At the present time this section is not applicable.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v):Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Caribbean Industrial Research Institute.

Applicants may request information via telephone, e-mail or in person. However, in order to access the rights afforded under the FOIA, the request must be made in writing on the official form Request for access to Official Documents, for information not available in the public domain.

Requests must be addressed to the Designated Officer of CARIRI named in section 7 (1) (a) (vi)

The request must be accompanied by enough detail to facilitate locating the relevant document/s as efficiently as possible. In keeping with the provisions of the FOIA, the Designated Officer would render any assistance necessary in order to formulate the request.

If the requested documents are not those held by CARIRI, the applicant is advised to direct the request to the relevant authority.

The time frame for delivery of a document, if it exists or can be found, is established under the FOIA. If CARIRI fails to meet these deadlines, the FOIA gives applicants the right to proceed as if the request had been denied. CARIRI will diligently try to comply with the time limits, but if it appears that processing a request may take longer than the statutory limit, an applicant's request will be acknowledged and the applicant will be advised of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misrouted, an applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the request has been received and to ascertain its status.

CARIRI will determine whether to grant your request for access to information and notify you of the decision as soon as practicable, but no later than 30 days after the day on which the request is duly made, as required by Section 15 of the FOIA.

The FOIA Fees and Charges Regulations prescribe fees related to the search, retrieval and provision of documents. The applicant will be given access to the documents within seven working days of the receipt of payment of the relevant fee. The FOIA allows the applicant a refund of fees paid, in addition to access to the requested information, if CARIRI fails to provide the information within the seven day period.
