Extension of Validity of National Identification Cards

The Elections and Boundaries Commission wishes to advise that all identification cards issued by the Commission, which have already expired and those due to expire in 2020, shall be valid until December 31, 2020. No action is required to be taken by the holders of such cards to extend their validity.

This extension of the expiry date of identification cards is instituted in accordance with Registration Rules 31 (5) and (6) of The Representation of the People Act, Chapter 2:01.
