prepared for publication or inspection
Material prepared for the public is published on EMBD's website www.embdt.org and EMBD's Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/embdt>.

4. Section 7(1) (a) (iv) Documents available by subscription

EMBD does not publish any documents available by subscription.

5. Section 7 (1) (a) (v) Procedure to be followed when accessing public document from EMBD

5.1 EMBD's policy is to respond to all requests for information.

5.2 For members of the public to have the rights under the Act, the applicant must make the request in writing and for information not readily available in the public domain, on the Request for Access to Official Document(s) Form that is available from the Designated Officer or from the FOIA Unit, Ministry of Communications in the Office of the Prime Minister at <http://www.foia.gov.tt/node/59>

5.3 Applicants should address the request to the Designated Officer and include details to assist in the identification and location of the information requested. If insufficient information is provided, then clarification will be sought from the applicant. If the applicant is unsure of how to write this request or what details to include, the applicant should communicate with the Designated Officer.

5.4 To the extent that the request under the Act is currently available in the public domain, or contains information available for purchase by the public or is available for public inspection in a registry maintained by the Registrar General or other public authority or is stored for preservation or safe custody, then the request will not be processed.

5.5 EMBD is only required to furnish copies of documents that it has in its possession, custody or power. EMBD is required to furnish only one (1) copy of a document. If EMBD cannot make a legible copy of a document, EMBD may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, EMBD will provide the best copy possible. Please note EMBD is not compelled to do the following:
(a) Create new documents; or
(b) Perform research for the public.

5.6 EMBD will determine whether to grant a request for access to information as soon as practicable but not later than 30 days as required by section 15 of the Act. Applicants whose requirements are incomplete or unclear will be informed of same by the Designated Officer who will make arrangements to consult with the applicant to clarify the request. The time limit of 30 days will be suspended while consultation with the applicant is being undertaken.

5.7 An applicant whose request for documents is refused will be notified by the Designated Officer in writing of the reasons for refusal. The Designated Officer will inform the applicant of alternative recourses that are open to him/her.

5.8 If the EMBD fails to meet the 30-day deadline, the Act gives the applicant the right to proceed as though his/her request has been denied. If it appears that processing the applicant's request may take longer than the statutory limit, EMBD will acknowledge receipt and advise the applicant of its status.

5.9 Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Designated Officer has received the request and to ascertain its status.

5.10 Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some other form such as a tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant shall pay the prescribed fee incurred for the duplication of the said material.

6. Section 7 (1) (a) (vi) Responsibilities of Designated Officer and/or Alternate Designated Officer

EMBD's Designated Officer and/or Alternate Designated Officer are responsible for:

- The initial receipt of and action upon notices under Section 10 of the Act
- Requests for access to documents under Section 13 of the Act
- Application for correction of personal information under Section 36 of the Act.
