The Minister shall cause to be published in the Gazette, and at least once in two daily newspapers of general circulation, the names of the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and other Members and every change in membership of the Board, including any resignation from office or termination of appointment.

Immunity of Members

10. (1) A Member shall not be held personally liable for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of the functions of the Authority, unless it is shown that the act or omission was a result of gross negligence or done in bad faith.

(2) Any sums of money, damages or cost recovered against the Authority for anything done or omitted or permitted to be done in good faith in the course of the operations of the Authority shall be paid out of such amounts as may be appropriated by Parliament.

11. (1) The Board shall meet at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business and in any case at least once every month at such place and time and on such days as the Board may determine. Meetings of the Board

(2) Subject to section 12(1), the Chairman or, in his absence, the Deputy Chairman shall preside at meetings of the Board, and in the absence of the Chairman and Deputy Chairman, the Members present and forming a quorum shall elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.

(3) The Board may, by way of rules or resolutions, regulate its own procedure for the conduct of its own business.

(4) The Chairman may, at any time, call a special meeting of the Board.

(5) Where the Chairman receives a written request from at least four Members for a special meeting of the Board, he shall call the special meeting within seven days of the request and issue the necessary notices for the special meeting.

(6) The Board may co-opt any one or more persons to attend any particular meeting of the Board for the purpose of assisting or advising the Board, but no such co-opted person shall have any right to vote.

12. (1) At any meeting of the Board, seven Members constitute a quorum. Quorum and decisions of the Board

(2) Decisions of the Board shall be by a majority of votes of Members present and voting.

13. The Board may appoint committees to examine and report to it on any matter whatsoever arising out of, or connected with, any of its functions and powers under this Act. Appointment of Committees

Disclosure of interest

14. (1) Subject to section 5(2)(f) and (g) of the Dangerous Drugs Act, every Member shall, within one month after his appointment and on each anniversary of his appointment, submit to the Minister a declaration in the approved form stating whether or not he—

- (a) is engaged or employed in the handling of cannabis; or
- (b) has an actual or contingent pecuniary interest in any company, firm or other entity which is regulated by the Authority.

(2) A Member who fails to comply with subsection (1) or who knowingly makes a false declaration under subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and imprisonment for a term of two years.

Chief Executive Officer

15. (1) The Authority shall employ a person with qualifications and experience in finance, management or accounting to be the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority who shall, subject to the directions of the Board, be responsible for the day to day management of the Authority.

(2) Subject to section 5(2)(f) and (g) of the Dangerous Drugs Act, no person appointed as Chief Executive Officer shall be or become engaged or employed in the handling of cannabis or have an actual or contingent pecuniary interest in any company, firm or other entity which is regulated by the Authority.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer shall be employed for a period not exceeding four years and may be re-employed upon approval of the Board.

(4) The Chief Executive Officer shall, in addition to the day to day management of the Authority, be responsible for such functions as the Board may assign to him.

(5) The Chief Executive Officer shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Board and to participate in deliberations at such meetings but he shall have no right to vote.

(6) Sections 7(3), 10 and 14 apply mutatis mutandis to the Chief Executive Officer as it applies to a Member.

16. (1) The Authority may employ such persons as it considers necessary for the due and efficient performance of its functions under this Act on such terms and conditions as are agreed upon between the Authority and the person.

Staff of the Authority and experts

(2) The Authority may engage an expert, adviser or consultant on contract to assist in the conduct of its regulatory responsibilities and any advice or other service under the contract shall be provided in such a manner that avoids any conflict of interest or improper influence on the Authority's regulatory decision-making.

(3) The engagement of a person under subsection (2) shall not relieve the Authority of its functions under this Act.

(4) An employee of the Authority or a person engaged under subsection (2) shall not be held personally liable for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of his duties, unless it is shown that the act or omission was a result of gross negligence or done in bad faith.

(5) An employee of the Authority or a person engaged under subsection (2) shall, within one week after—

- (a) his appointment or engagement; and
- (b) each anniversary of his appointment or engagement, submit to the Chief Executive Officer a declaration in the approved form stating whether or not he has an actual or contingent pecuniary interest in any company, firm or other entity which is regulated by the Authority.

(6) An employee of the Authority, or a person engaged under subsection (2), who has an actual or contingent pecuniary interest referred to in subsection (5) shall not, in the course of the performance of his duties, take part in any deliberation or decision which is likely to affect that interest.

(7) An employee of the Authority, or a person engaged under subsection (2), who—

- (a) contravenes subsection (5) or (6); or
- (b) knowingly makes a false declaration under subsection (5), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and imprisonment for a term of two years.

Delegation of

17. (1) The Board may, by written instrument, delegate any of the functions of the Authority to the Chief Executive Officer or such other appropriate officer as the Board thinks fit.

(2) The delegation of a function under this section does not prevent the performance of that function by the Board.

Confidentiality

18. (1) Members of the Board, employees of the Authority and every person concerned with the administration of this Act, including a person engaged under section 16(2), shall treat documents, information or other matters related to the administration of this Act, as secret and confidential and shall make and subscribe to an oath of secrecy to that effect before a Justice of the Peace.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), disclosures—

- (a) made by the Authority, or any other person, pursuant to the provisions of this Act; or

- (b) which the Authority considers necessary in the discharge of its functions, shall not be deemed inconsistent with any duty imposed under this section.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Board shall, within seven days of receiving a written request from the Minister, cause to be transmitted to the Minister such information as the Minister may specify in the request regarding—

- (a) the salary and other terms and conditions of employment of the Chief Executive Officer and employees of the Authority;
- (b) the organisational structure of the Authority;
- (c) the number of current or former officers and employees of the Authority;
- (d) the number of filled or vacant positions in the organisational structure of the Authority; or
- (e) such other matters relating to the employment of staff as the Minister thinks fit.

(4) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), a person has the right to request that any proprietary or confidential documents, information or matter provided or submitted to the Authority be kept as secret and confidential by the Authority.

(5) A Member, employee of the Authority or any person concerned with the administration of this Act who discloses documents, information or any other matter related to the administration of this Act in contravention of this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred thousand dollars and imprisonment for a term of two years.

PART III
FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Definitions

19. For the purposes of this Part—

“Fund” means the fund established under section 20;

“IFRS” means the International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted from time to time by the International Accounting Standards Board;

“Minister” means the Minister to whom responsibility for finance is assigned.

Establishment of the Fund

20. (1) There is hereby established a fund to be known as “the Trinidad and Tobago Cannabis Licensing Authority Fund”.

(2) The Fund shall comprise the following monies:

- (a) appropriations by Parliament from the Consolidated Fund;
- (b) fees and other charges collected by the Authority;
- (c) sums borrowed by the Authority for the purpose of meeting any of its obligations or for discharging any of its functions;
- (d) sums received by, or owed to, the Authority in respect of the performance of its functions or the exercise of its powers; and
- (e) such other sums which may, in any manner, become payable to, or vested in, the Authority.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Authority shall not borrow any sums, or accept or receive any sums by way of a grant or donation, from any person or entity which is regulated by the Authority.

21. (1) The monies in the Fund may only be applied^{Application of the Fund} in defraying the following expenditure:

- (a) the acquisition of property by the Authority in the course of performing its functions or exercising its powers;
- (b) the remuneration and allowances of Members;
- (c) the remuneration, allowances and gratuities payable or to be made to the Chief Executive Officer and to employees of, and persons engaged on contract by, the Authority;
- (d) capital and operating expenses, including maintenance and insurance of the property of the Authority;
- (e) research, training, education, public awareness, drug rehabilitation and other related matters; and
- (f) any other expenditure authorised by the Authority in the performance of its functions.

(2) The Authority may, in accordance with IFRS, make provision for future expenditure in any category referred to in subsection (1)(a) to (e).

22. (1) The Authority shall prepare a budget in^{Estimates of expenditure} accordance with IFRS or such other form as the Minister may direct for each financial year and the Authority shall submit estimates so prepared to the Treasury not later than the deadline date stipulated by the Minister.

(2) The Authority shall, at such time as the Minister directs, furnish him with such further information in relation to the estimates as he may require.

Financial year

23. The financial year of the Authority shall be the period of twelve months beginning on the first day of October in any year to the thirtieth day of September in the following year, but the period from the date of commencement of this Act to the end of September next following shall be deemed to be the first financial year.

Accounts

24. (1) The Authority shall keep proper books of accounts and records of all sums received and expended by the Authority and shall record the matters in respect of which such sums were received and expended.

(2) Within three months after the end of each financial year, the Authority shall, in respect of that year, cause to be prepared and submitted to the Minister—

- (a) a report on the activities of the Authority; and
- (b) financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS, and the Minister shall cause a copy of the report and financial statements to be laid in Parliament within one month of the receipt of the report and financial statements or, if there is no sitting of Parliament during that period, at the next sitting of Parliament.

(3) Where the standards included in IFRS are inappropriate or inadequate for any type of accounting method, the Comptroller of Accounts may provide such instructions as may be necessary.

Audit of accounts

25. (1) The accounts of the Authority are public accounts for the purposes of section 116 of the Constitution.

(2) On completion of an audit of the Authority, the Auditor General or an auditor authorised by him to conduct the audit, as the case may be, shall immediately draw to the attention of the Minister and the Board any irregularity disclosed by the audit.

(3) For the purposes of an audit conducted pursuant to this Act, the Exchequer and Audit Act shall Chap. 69:01 apply as if an audit referred to in this Part is one to which that Act applies.

(4) As soon as the accounts of the Authority have been audited, the Auditor General shall submit his report in accordance with section 116 of the Constitution and shall simultaneously forward a copy of the said report to the Minister.

(5) Nothing in this section precludes the Auditor General or an auditor engaged by the Board or the Minister from performing a management or comprehensive audit of the activities of the Authority.

26. (1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Power to borrow Minister, borrow monies required for meeting any of its obligations under this Act from persons or entities which are not regulated by the Authority.

(2) The Minister may guarantee in such manner and on such conditions as he thinks fit, the payment of the principal and interest in respect of any borrowing of the Authority under this section.

(3) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, raise monies required by it for meeting any of its obligations and discharging of any of its functions by issuing securities to persons or entities which are not regulated by the Authority.

(4) For the purposes of this section, “security” has the meaning assigned to it under the Securities Act. Chap. 83:02

27. The Authority and its assets, property, income, Exemption from taxes, etc. operations and transactions shall be exempt from all taxation of every kind and description, including customs duties, corporation tax, value added tax, property tax, stamp duty, business levy and green fund levy.

Annual report

28. After the expiration of one year from the coming into operation of this Act, the Authority shall, within three months after the end of each calendar year, submit annually to Parliament a report on the activities of the Authority during that calendar year.

- (e) to take photographs;
- (f) to make copies of any record or other document;
- (g) to seize anything which may be of evidential value for the prosecution of an offence under this Act or any other written law; and

(h) to direct the temporary suspension of any activity which he reasonably believes to be in contravention of this Act or in breach the terms and conditions of a licence.

(2) Where an inspector takes action under subsection (1)(h), he may—

- (a) order the licensee to prohibit employees and other persons from engaging in the activity;
- (b) order that any material be safely and securely stored; and
- (c) require that corrective action be taken in accordance with sections 37 and 38.

(3) Where an inspector takes action under subsection (2), the decision of the inspector remains in force unless and until—

- (a) it is withdrawn by the inspector;
- (b) reversed or modified by the Authority; or
- (c) altered through an appeal under section 66 or judicial review.

(4) Where an inspector takes any action under subsections (1)(h) and (2), he shall, within twenty-four hours of taking such action, make a report to the Authority of his findings and any actions taken by him.

- (5) A report under subsection (4) shall include—
- (a) relevant findings and identify the evidentiary basis for the findings;
 - (b) explanations or any other information the inspector deems relevant.

(6) A report submitted under this section shall be made available to the licensee affected who shall have the right to submit explanations or objections within seven days of the issuance of the report.

(7) A person who obstructs or hinders an inspector in the carrying out of his duties under this section commits an offence.

63. Where a Magistrate is satisfied by information or ^{Warrants} oath given by a police officer, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that an offence under this Act has been or is about to be committed in any dwelling house, he may issue a warrant authorising the police officer to—

- (a) enter, at any time, the place named in the warrant with force, if necessary, and inspect that place;
- (b) detain a person found in that place in respect of whom there is reasonable suspicion regarding the commission of an offence under this Act; or
- (c) seize anything which may be of evidential value for the prosecution of an offence under this Act or any other written law.

PART IX

MISCELLANEOUS

64. (1) Where the Authority has reasonable cause to ^{Administrative fines} believe that a person has committed a prescribed summary offence under this Act, the Authority may issue to that person a notice offering the person the opportunity to dispense with any liability to conviction in respect of that offence by payment of the prescribed administrative fine.

(2) Where a person is given a notice under this section, criminal proceedings shall not be taken against him for the offence specified in the notice until the expiration of twenty-one days commencing from the day after which the notice was served.

(3) Where a person fails to pay the administrative fine referred to in subsection (1), or where he pays the administrative fine but continues to commit the offence after the expiration of twenty-one days following the date of service of the notice referred to in subsection (1), that person is liable for the offence committed.

(4) Where a person paid an administrative fine under subsection (1), but continues to commit the offence and is convicted under subsection (3), he is liable for the offence from the date after which he made the payment.

(5) Payment of an administrative fine under this section shall be made to the Authority and a certificate that payment of the penalty was made to the Authority by the specified date shall, if the certificate purports to be signed by an officer authorised by the Authority, be admissible as evidence of the facts stated therein.

(6) All monies received under this section shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund.

(7) A notice under subsection (1) shall—

- (a) specify the offence alleged;
- (b) give such particulars of the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the allegation; and

(c) state—

- (i) that criminal proceedings shall not be laid until the expiration of twenty-one days from the date of service of the notice where payment of the administrative fine is made and the commission of the offence is discontinued;
- (ii) the amount of the administrative fine and the fact that it is to be paid to the Authority; and

(iii) that the Authority shall not accept any payments in respect of a notice under subsection (1) after the expiration of the twenty-one days.

(8) In any proceedings for an offence to which this section applies, no reference shall be made to the giving of any notice under this section or to the payment or non-payment of an administrative fine thereunder unless in the course of the proceedings or in some document which is before the court in connection with the proceedings, reference has been made by, or on behalf of the accused to the giving of such a notice, or, as the case may be, to such payment.

65. A person who contravenes, or fails to comply with, any of the provisions of this Act or the Regulations commits an offence and except where the provision by, or under which the offence is created, provides a penalty to be imposed, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine of one thousand dollars for each day that the offence continues after conviction. General penalties

66. A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Authority under this Act to refuse to grant or renew a licence, to suspend or revoke a licence, or to impose an administrative fine, may, within thirty days of being informed of that decision, appeal to the High Court. Appeals

67. (1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make Regulations generally for carrying this Act into effect and prescribing anything required to be prescribed under this Act. Regulations

(2) Regulations may provide that any contravention thereof shall constitute an offence punishable on summary conviction by a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars and imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

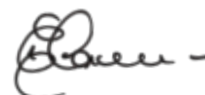

(3) Regulations made under this Act shall be subject to the affirmative resolution of Parliament.
