Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

Function and Structure of the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs

Vision

The Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs is an organization of public spirited and dynamic professionals, dedicated to preserving democracy, promoting good governance and the rule of law to ultimately improve the quality of life for all citizens.

Mission

The Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs aims to deliver quality and cost effective legal services to both the Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, its citizens and other stakeholders by the use of modern systems and technologies.

Function

The mandate of the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs is to provide comprehensive and efficient legal services to the Government of Trinidad and Tobago, the private sector, various agencies, regional institutions and members of the public.

The Ministry's obligations are primarily derived from the constitutional directives given to the Attorney General and Minister of Legal Affairs. These include:

- Responsibility for the administration of legal affairs in Trinidad and Tobago.
- To represent the State in Civil Proceedings, in the name of the Attorney General.
- To act as an independent guardian of the public interest, and to ensure that the rights of all citizens are protected.

Additionally, the Ministry engages in unique service delivery that affects the lives of every citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, with responsibility for the following:

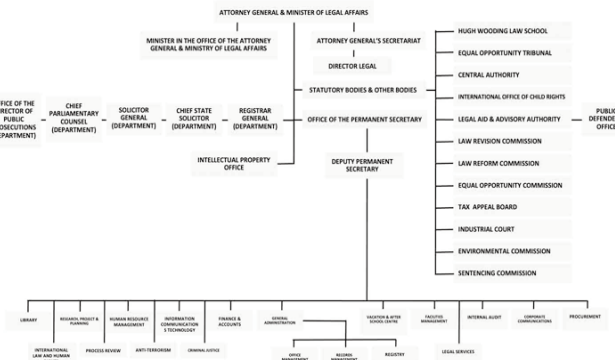

- Registration of births, deaths and marriages and matters pertaining to certificates issued.
- Registration of companies and land titles documents and matters pertaining to the certified copies issued.
- Granting of Intellectual Property Rights, administration of all laws relation to Intellectual Property and educating the public about Intellectual Property.
- Examination of patents, utility certificates, trademarks, industrial designs, geographical indications, layout designs (topographies) of integrated circuits and new plant varieties.
- Preparing, publishing and maintaining revised editions of the Laws of Trinidad and Tobago.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE AND STAFFING

The Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs is headed by the Permanent Secretary and has Eight Hundred and Twenty-Five (825) established and Eight Hundred and Forty-Eight (848) contract positions in sum. These positions comprise clerical, technical/professional, secretarial, administrative and manipulative staff. The core Ministry is divided into the following Departments/Units; as outlined in the organizational chart attached.

Additionally, an extract from the Extraordinary Gazette Vol. 59 No. 158 dated Wednesday 9th September, 2020 listing the Statutory Boards and Other Bodies, which are under the remit of the Ministry is attached.

ORGANIZATIONAL CHART OF THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND MINISTRY OF LEGAL AFFAIRS

FUNCTIONS OF THE DIVISIONS OF THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND MINISTRY OF LEGAL AFFAIRS

Solicitor General's Department

The Solicitor General's Department is headed by the Solicitor General and performs a critical role in the administration of justice. This Department advises the State on all aspects of Civil Law, it represents the State in both Constitutional and Civil Proceedings, assists in the formulation and execution of Government policy within the limits of the law and vets financial documents related to loan agreements and bond issues on the domestic and international markets.

CHIEF STATE SOLICITOR'S DEPARTMENT

The Chief State Solicitor's Department is headed by the Chief State Solicitor and provides legal services to all Government Ministries and Departments, as well as to the members of the public. One of the Department's main function includes the provision of commercial and property law services to both the Government and the public. These services include the preparation of deeds and contracts for commercial enterprises and for the engagement of consultants and other personnel. The Department also instructs the Solicitor General in Civil Litigation Matters.

PUBLIC NOTICE

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS

The Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions (the Criminal Law Department) is headed by the Director of Public Prosecutions. This Office was created by the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. It is independent of both political and stakeholder involvement.

The functions of the Department include the following:

- Undertaking Criminal Prosecution in all High Courts (Assizes and Appeal).
- Briefing Counsel in the United Kingdom on the conduct of Appeals before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.
- Undertaking prosecutions in complex matters and matters of public interest in the forty (40) Magistrates' Courts throughout the country.
- Formulating prosecution policy.
- Interfacing on a regular basis with Governmental, Non-Governmental and international agencies such as the Police, Defence Force, Customs and Excise, Board of Inland Revenue and Town and Country Planning Division. In addition, there is a great deal of interaction with the Public, the United States Department of Justice, the Crown Prosecutors Service and other prosecuting agencies within the Caribbean Territories.
- Assisting with Extradition requests.
- Proffering indictments before the High Court and preparing and filing other legal documents.

LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING DEPARTMENT

This Department is headed by the Chief Parliamentary Counsel. It plays a critical role in the implementation of Government policy and its responsibilities includes the production of technically sound legislation for client Ministries; the advising of the Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago on the Constitution and all legal aspects of legislation and the advising of Parliament on issues relating to Parliamentary procedure and legal matters.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OFFICE

The Intellectual Property Office was established on December 1, 1997 by the Patents Act, 1996. The Office is headed by the Controller and is responsible for handling the registration of intellectual property rights.

ANTI-TERRORISM UNIT

The primary function of the Anti-Terrorism Unit (ATU) is to fulfil the obligation of the Attorney General and Minister of Legal Affairs under the Anti-Terrorism Act, Chap. 12:07. Primarily, the ATU makes applications to the High Court for the designation of individuals and entities, both domestically and detailed, on various United Nations Sanctions Lists. It also makes the application for Targeted Financial Sanctions. Further, the ATU works closely with key national agencies relative to Counter Terrorism matters, as well as with international stakeholders.

Vital to the role of the ATU and the fulfilment of the country's obligations are the international standards in respect of terrorism imposed on Trinidad and Tobago as a member state of both the United Nations and Caribbean Financial Action Task Force (CFATF). In the execution of its obligations, the ATU works closely with both the CFATF and Financial Action Task Force.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S SECRETARIAT - CIVIL LITIGATION

The Secretariat operates under the sole direction and instruction of the Attorney General and Minister of Legal Affairs. Its core functions are:

- To liaise with foreign Attorneys on litigation matters involving the State of Trinidad and Tobago;
- To assist with the management and monitoring of the work undertaken by both the Office of the Solicitor General and Chief State Solicitor and provide essential support to both Offices, especially, in instances of highly sensitive and critical litigation matters;
- To represent the State in complex constitutional and other civil legal proceedings;
- To lead or participate in negotiations with external parties;
- To assist the Attorney General with day-to-day administrative and procedural functions;
- To provide legal advice on an extensive range of legal matters that are submitted to the Ministry from other Ministries/Departments, Cabinet and Statutory bodies which includes constitutional and civil issues; commercial matters; municipal and international law; legislative matters before Cabinet and Parliament and matters of law reform;

- To draft Instruments of Appointment for Members of various Boards and to draft complex legal documents;
- To assist in the review of Finance Documents as submitted by the Ministry of Finance for positive vetting by the Attorney General and Minister of Legal Affairs; and
- To assist in the review of agreements/contracts submitted by the Ministry of Energy for positive vetting by the Attorney General and Minister of Legal Affairs."

CRIMINAL JUSTICE UNIT

The Criminal Justice Unit (CJU) is tasked with the continued transformation and operationalizing of the criminal justice sector. CJU is responsible for spearheading ongoing criminal justice reform projects and performing the following key functions:

- Provide legal advice to the Attorney General and Minister of Legal Affairs and other Government Departments regarding the Criminal Justice System and related matters.
- Review and analyse the existing body of law relating to particular issues relevant to the Justice sector and make recommendations for continuous revisions and amendments to laws;
- Develop policies for justice reform and conduct consultations with key stakeholders;
- Develop mechanisms for the effective management, supervision and support of offenders from charge to completion of sentence and reintegration into society;
- Devise policies aimed at reducing re-offending;
- Prepare documents for submission to Cabinet and Parliament, including Cabinet Notes and Ministerial Responses to Parliamentary Committees;
- Represent the Ministry at local, regional and international levels;
- Collaborate with other Ministries and Criminal Justice entities on re-engineering the Justice system;
- Promote programmes designed to enhance public awareness of Justice initiatives;
- Perform key administrative functions and prepare periodic reports to the Permanent Secretary on the status of all Justice projects;
- Establish and maintain a database of all Criminal Justice projects within the Ministry;
- Undertake any other duty which the Minister or Permanent Secretary deem necessary for the Unit to conduct.

INTERNATIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS UNIT

The International Law and Human Rights Unit's (ILHRU) primarily focuses on the preparation of country reports for submission to various international organizations in relation to international human rights instruments of which Trinidad and Tobago is a party. The Unit also acts as a peer reviewer for other countries when a request is made to the government from an international organization, such as the United Nations. Further, the ILHRU forms part of national task forces which are charged with Trinidad and Tobago's national policy and legislation in relation to Human Trafficking, refugees and asylum seekers. It sits as one of the government's representatives on the ILO 144 Tripartite Committee in the Ministry of Labour and Small Enterprise Development, as well as the Cabinet appointed Committee for implementation of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

When necessary, the ILHRU also engages in Public awareness campaigns on various human rights issues as well as the hosting of international conferences and meetings which relate to Human Rights matters

PROCESS REVIEW

The Process Review Team is tasked with the enhancement of the organizational effectiveness of the Ministry's policies, management systems and practices by addressing deficiencies in respect of work distribution and work flows, tracking and monitoring systems and evaluation and feedback mechanisms within the Ministry. It supports the work of the Attorney General by ensuring the development of a Legislative Agenda and engages in intervention strategies to expedite critical legal matters which are under the purview of the Civil Law Department, Law Reform Commission and Legislative Drafting Department.

The Team's core objectives are to assist the Attorney General and Minister of Legal Affairs in the execution of specified matters as determined from the Legislative Agenda and to provide advice on legislative and policy reform.

In addition, CAU assists the Attorney General and Minister of Legal Affairs in carrying out his responsibilities under the International War Crimes Tribunal Act, Chap. 11:23, and as such, provides assistance and cooperates with the International Tribunal for the Territory of former Yugoslavia and the International Tribunal for Rwanda.

COUNCIL FOR LEGAL EDUCATION

The Council of Legal Education (Council) has been in existence for over forty (40) years and trains legal practitioners in the Commonwealth Caribbean in fulfilment of its Mission Statement:

"To facilitate the development of competent legal practitioners for the region who, appreciating their responsibility as members of an honourable profession and recognising the needs of their socio-economic environment, are inspired in the pursuit of excellence, the maintenance of high ethical standards, the promotion of social justice and the strengthening of the rule of law."

THE ENVIRONMENTAL COMMISSION

The Environmental Commission is responsible for resolving environmental disputes arising under the law in a fair, accessible, effective, and efficient manner and interprets and applies the law consistently, impartially, and independently to protect the rights of citizens, while being cognizant of the need for the balancing of economic growth with environmentally sound practices.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION

The Equal Opportunity Commission (Commission) was established in 2000. The functions of the Commission are as follows:

- Work towards the elimination of discrimination;
- Promote equality of opportunity and good relations between persons of different ethnic and religious backgrounds;
- Receive, investigate and as far as possible, conciliate allegations of discrimination;
- Develop, conduct and foster research and education programmes and other programmes for the purpose of eliminating discrimination and promoting equality of opportunity and good relations between persons of different races, ethnicities, religions, geographical origins, marital status, gender or physical disabilities; and
- Prepare and publish appropriate guidelines for the avoidance of discrimination.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY TRIBUNAL

The Equal Opportunity Tribunal ("the Tribunal") is a superior court of record established pursuant to the Equal Opportunity Act, Chap. 22:03. Apart from the jurisdiction and powers conferred on it by the Act, the Tribunal also has all powers inherent in such a court. The work of the Tribunal is to resolve matters referred to it by the Commission pursuant to section 39 (2) of the Act. In the resolution of matters, the Tribunal is empowered to administer a wide range of remedies including the making of orders, declarations and awards of compensation as it thinks fit.

HUGH WOODING LAW SCHOOL

The Hugh Wooding Law School was established in 1973 and is one of three Law Schools established by the Council of Legal Education to provide professional legal training that leads to the award of the Legal Education Certificate by the Council of Legal Education. The Certificate entitles holders to be admitted to practice in the Commonwealth Caribbean, subject to the laws of each territory.

INTERNATIONAL OFFICE OF CHILD RIGHTS

The International Office of Child Rights (IOCR) maintains our country's obligations under The Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction and ensures that children are returned to their country of habitual residence. It also houses the Civil Child Abduction Authority (CCAA), which was established under the International Child Abduction Act, 2008. This Act provides for the application of The Hague Convention to the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction in Trinidad and Tobago and provides for matters connected with or related thereto.

The CCAA is a Central Authority established to deal with all matters relating to the civil aspects of international parental child abduction between Trinidad and Tobago and contracting territories. To date, Trinidad and Tobago has partnered with over fifty (50) territories under The Hague Convention. The CCAA is also responsible for discharging the duties which are imposed by the Convention.

LAW REFORM COMMISSION

The Law Reform Commission was established by the Law Reform Act, Chap. 3:04. By Section 4 of the Act, the Commission is mandated to keep under review all the law applicable to Trinidad and Tobago with a view to its systematic development and reform, including in particular the modification of any branch of the law as far as that is practicable, the elimination of anomalies, the repeal of obsolete and unnecessary enactments, the reduction of the number of separate enactments and generally the simplification and modernisation of the law. In so doing, the Commission is tasked with the following:

- to receive and consider suggestions for the reform of the law which may be forwarded to it (either on the invitation of the Commission or otherwise) by Judges, public officials, lawyers and members of the public generally;
- to receive and consider proposals for changes in the law referred to it by the Minister (responsible of Legal Affairs) or recommended by any Law Reform Committee, Association of Lawyers or other learned bodies;
- to prepare and submit to the Minister from time to time specific programmes for the examination of different branches of the law with a view to reform including recommendations as to whether such examination should be carried out by the Commission or some other body;
- to undertake, in pursuance of any recommendation of the Minister, the formulation of draft Bills relating to the proposals for reform contained in such recommendation;
- to undertake, pursuant to any recommendations approved by the Minister, the examination of particular branches of the law and the formulation, by means of draft Bills or otherwise, of proposals for reform therein;
- to provide at the instance of the Minister advice and information to Ministries and Departments of Government and Statutory Authorities concerned with proposals for the amendment or reform of any branch of the law; and
- to obtain such information in regard to the laws and legal systems of other countries as in the opinion of the Commission is likely to facilitate the performance of any of its functions.

LAW REVISION COMMISSION

The Law Revision Commission (LRC) was established by the Law Revision Act, Chap. 3:03. By section 4 of the Act, LRC is mandated to prepare, publish and maintain a Revised Edition of the written laws of Trinidad and Tobago. This is carried out in accordance with the powers given under section 16 of this Act which enables LRC to:

- Omit all written laws, or parts of written laws, which have been repealed, or which have expired, or have become spent;
- Omit all amended written laws, where the amendments have become incorporated into the written laws to which they relate;
- Consolidate into one written law any two or more written laws in pari materia, making such alterations that are necessary in the consolidation of that written law;
- Arrange the written laws, whether consolidated or not in any group or sequence that may be convenient, irrespective of the date of enactment;
- Shorten, simplify, clarify and otherwise alter the phraseology of any written law;
- Correct grammatical and typographical errors, or any clerical or printing errors in any written law, and for that purpose, to make verbal editions, omissions or alterations not affecting the meaning of any written law; and
- Generally, do all things relating to format and method which may be necessary to perfect the law.

LEGAL AID AND ADVISORY AUTHORITY

The Legal Aid and Advisory Authority (LAAA) was established by the Legal Aid and Advice Act, Chap. 7:07, on July 1, 1976. The mandate of the LAAA is "...to make legal aid and advice in Trinidad and Tobago readily available to persons of small or moderate means, to enable the cost of legal aid or advice granted to persons to be defrayed wholly or partly out of moneys provided by Parliament, and for purposes connected therewith."

PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND MINISTRY OF

Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago
Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs

PUBLIC NOTICE

In June 2018, the Public Defenders' Office (Office) was established under the ambit of LAAG. The Office was identified as a key component in the reduction of the criminal justice backlog that has become systemically endemic. The mission of the Office is to provide legal representation to citizens who cannot access it. The focus of the Office will be on criminal matters at the High Court level, with few exceptions at the Magisterial level.

SENTENCING COMMISSION

The Sentencing Commission was established under Section 4 of the Sentencing Commission Act, Chap. 4:32. This Commission undertakes such functions as are prescribed by this Act or any other written law. The functions of the Sentencing Commission are to collect, analyse and disseminate sentencing data; develop sentencing guidelines and principles and ranges of sentencing for specific offences and categories of offences; periodically review sentencing guidelines and provide a framework for the setting of maximum penalties and ranges of sentencing developed; make recommendations regarding the revision of maximum penalties, the nature of particular offences and the categorisation of offences as to degree of seriousness, inter alia.

THE TAX APPEAL BOARD

The Tax Appeal Board ("the Board") is a superior Court of record, established under Section 3 of the Tax Appeal Board Act, Chap. 4:50. The Board has jurisdiction to hear and determine:

- Appeals from the decision of the Board of Inland Revenue upon objections to assessment under the Income Tax Act;
- Appeals from such other decisions of the Board of Inland Revenue or of any other person under the Income Tax Act as may be prescribed by or under that Act; and
- Such other matters as may be prescribed by or under this Act or any other written law.

POLICE COMPLAINTS AUTHORITY

The Police Complaints Authority (PCA) was established by the Police Complaints Authority Act 2006, Chap. 15:05 to provide civilian oversight of law enforcement in Trinidad and Tobago. It is an independent corporate body mandated, among other things, to independently investigate complaints against police officers involved in criminal offences, police corruption and serious police misconduct.

EFFECTS OF FUNCTIONS ON MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC

The work of the Ministry directly impacts on the holistic development of Trinidad and Tobago through the promotion of the rule of law at all levels of society. Moreover, the Ministry, in carrying out its functions ensures the developmental pillars of a modern legal and regulatory framework are implemented and made effective. The Ministry functions ensure that the individual freedoms and property rights are protected and this in turn impacts on national development.

Further, the work of the Ministry directly impacts on the lives of citizens, as they are provided with vital records, such as birth, deaths and marriage certificates. Opportunities for furthering the development of society are also available, as citizens can register businesses and companies. The Ministry also enables society to have access to the laws of the country, via its website or purchasing said laws.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR CONSULTATION

When the Ministry is addressing legislative matters which will have a major impact on the national community, the process for public consultation on said matters is usually engaged.

Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago
Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs

PUBLIC NOTICE

Section 7 (1) (a) (iv)

Literature Available by Subscription

- The Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs offers no literature by way of subscription services

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed when a request for access to a document is made to the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs.

Applications to the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs must be made in writing. The Request for Access to Official Documents form can be downloaded from the website www.foia.gov.tt.

The application should include:

- Name of the Public Authority the information is being requested from;
- Name of the Applicant;
- Address and contact information for the Applicant;
- The information requested and the format in which the information is to be provided;
- Date of the request;
- Signature of the Applicant; and
- Details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested.

The application should be addressed to the Designated Officer of the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs (see Section 7(1)(a)(vi)). If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If an applicant is unsure as to the completing of the application form, inquiries can be made to the Designated Officer.

A request under the FOIA may not be processed to the extent that it seeks information that is readily available in the public domain, either from the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs or another public authority, or if the said information is exempted. The Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession.

The Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If a document to be released is not legible, it will not be reconstructed, instead the best possible copy is to be furnished.

The Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs will determine whether to grant a request for access to official documents as soon as it is practicable but no later than thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of the document. Acknowledgement of receipt of request to be furnished to the applicant. Every effort will be made to comply with the time frames set out in the FOIA, but where it appears that processing a request may take longer than statutory limit, the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs will advise the applicant, by way of letter and ask for an additional period of time to provide the information. If the Ministry fails to meet the deadlines set out in the FOIA, the applicant has the right to proceed as if the request has been denied.

Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some other format, such as tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.

Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)

Procedure to be followed when a request for access to official documents is made to the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs.

Officers in the Office of the Attorney General and Ministry of Legal Affairs are responsible for:

- The initial receipt of and action upon notices under section 10;
- Processing requests for access to official documents under section 13; and
- Processing applications for correction of Personal Information under section 36 of the FOIA.
