Section 7 (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed when accessing documents from NIDCO under the FOIA

How to Request Information:

General Procedure

1. NIDCO's policy is to answer all requests for information, both oral and written. However, in order to derive the rights given to the applicant under the Act (for example the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the applicant must make such requests for information in writing.
2. Requests for access to documents and information under the FOIA should be submitted to NIDCO between the hours of 8:00a.m. and 3:00p.m. Monday to Thursday, with the exception of public holidays.
3. All requests for access to documents that are not readily available in the public domain are to be made on the Request for Access to Official Documents(s) (Pursuant to Section 13) Form that is available from the FOIA Unit or can be downloaded at <http://www.foia.gov.tt/node/59>.
4. Queries for amendments to documents containing personal information about the applicant are to be directed to the Designation Officer in the form of a letter.
5. Requests will be acknowledged as official when made on the prescribed FOIA form.

Addressing Requests

6. To ensure prompt handling of requests, please address requests to the Designated Officer of The National Infrastructure Development Company Limited.

Details in the Request

7. Applicants must provide sufficient information to enable the Designated Officer to identify the document(s) being requested.
8. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant.
9. If the applicant is not sure how to write his/her request or what details to include therein, communication with the Designated Officer is recommended.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

10. Requests under the FOIA will not be processed if such information is readily available in the public domain, either from NIDCO or from another public authority.

Retrieving Documents

11. Requests under the FOIA will not be processed if such information is readily available in the public domain, either from NIDCO or from another public authority. NIDCO will furnish copies of documents upon request where it is in possession of such documents and there is no restriction in law to such disclosure.

Furnishing Documents

12. An applicant is entitled to copies of information NIDCO has in its possession, custody or power. NIDCO is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If NIDCO cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, NIDCO will not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, NIDCO will furnish the best copy and note its quality in the reply.

Please note that NIDCO is not required to do the following:

- a) Create new documents, write a new programme so that a computer will print information in the applicant's preferred format;
- b) Perform research for the applicant.

521—Continued

UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE NATIONAL INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT

Time Limits

1. In accordance with Section 15 of the FOIA, applicants will be notified within thirty (30) calendar days of the approval or refusal of their request.
2. If a decision is taken to grant access to information requested, applicants will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.
3. Applicants whose requests are incomplete or unclear will be informed of the same by the Designated Officer who will make arrangements to consult with the applicant, with a view to clarifying the request.
4. The time limit of thirty (30) days will be suspended while consultation with the applicant is being undertaken, and will resume on the day the applicant confirms or alters the request.
5. An applicant whose request for documents is refused will be notified by the Designated Officer in writing of the reasons for refusal. The Designated Officer will inform the applicant of alternative recourses that are open to him/her.
6. Should NIDCO fail to meet the thirty-day deadline, the Act gives the applicant the right to proceed as though his/her request has been denied.
7. If it appears that processing the applicant's request may take longer than the statutory limit, NIDCO will acknowledge the receipt and advise the applicant of its status.
8. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Designated Officer has received the request and to ascertain its status.
