

LEGAL NOTICE NO. 127

REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

QUARANTINE ACT, CHAP. 28:05

ORDER

MADE BY THE CHIEF MEDICAL OFFICER UNDER SECTION 6(1) OF
THE QUARANTINE ACT

THE QUARANTINE (MONKEYPOX VIRUS) ORDER, 2022

1. This Order may be cited as the Quarantine (Monkeypox Virus) Citation
Order, 2022.

2. In this Order, “Health Officer” has the same meaning assigned to Interpretation it in regulation 2 of the Quarantine (Maritime) Regulations. No. 19 of 1944

3. For the purpose of the prevention of the spread of the Monkeypox Special
Virus, the Health Officer may take the following special measures: measure

- (a) where an infection, which may be the Monkeypox Virus, has occurred on board a ship during a period of six weeks immediately preceding its arrival at a port of Trinidad and Tobago, the surveillance of the crew and passengers who have been exposed to the infection, for a period of twenty-one days from the last day of possible exposure to the infection; or
- (b) where an infection, which may be the Monkeypox Virus, has occurred on board an aircraft at any time immediately preceding its arrival at an aerodrome in Trinidad and Tobago, the surveillance of the crew and passengers who have been exposed to the infection, for a period of twenty-one days from the last day of possible exposure to the infection.

Dated this 24th day of June, 2022.

R. PARASRAM
Chief Medical Officer