No. 64, 28th May, 2009*

No. 13 of 2009

Second Session Ninth Parliament Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

BILL

AN ACT to establish the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago, for the implementation of the anti-money laundering policies of the Financial Action Task force.

THE FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE UNIT OF TRINIDAD
AND TOBAGO BILL, 2009

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The purposes of the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Bill, 2009 are to—

- (a) establish by statute a department of the Ministry of Finance to be called the Financial Intelligence Unit, (“the Unit”) with primary responsibility for ensuring compliance by Trinidad and Tobago with the Revised Forty Recommendations and the Nine Special Recommendations on Terrorist Financing issued in 2003 by the Financial Action Task Force. (This responsibility is now being partly undertaken administratively, by a Unit of the Ministry of National Security);
- (b) provide for its local and international functions and other powers; and
- (c) empower the Unit and by extension its Director, to conduct, the degree of oversight over financial institutions identified in the Proceeds of Crime Act, 2000 and types of business listed in the First Schedule, necessary for the undertaking of the responsibility at paragraph (a).

On account of the nature of the powers being vested in the department, the Bill would require a majority vote of not less than three-fifths of both Houses of Parliament in accordance with section 13 of the Constitution. Its provisions therefore commence with the Preamble required by that section.

Part I would contain preliminary clauses and contain clauses 1 and 2.

Clause 1 would contain the short title and commencement provisions.

Clause 2 would contain the interpretation of certain words and expressions used in the Bill.

Part II “Establishment and Staff of the FIU” would contain clauses 3 to 6.

Clause 3 would establish the FIU and would provide for its staff.

Clause 4 would provide for the status of the Director as Head of the FIU with overall responsibility for the supervision of the department and implementation of the anti-money laundering policies of the Financial Action Task Force.

Clause 5 would provide for circumstances in which a person is no longer employed by the Unit.

Clause 6 would provide for the Oath of Office to be taken by officers employed with the Unit.

Part III "Functions and Powers of the FIU" would contain clauses 7 to 17.

Clause 7 would detail the functions of the FIU.

Clause 8 would assign to the FIU specific responsibility for monitoring the effectiveness of the system for implementation of anti-money laundering policies of the Financial Action Task Force.

Clause 9 would mandate the FIU to provide a response to the financial institution or listed business after submission of a Suspicious Transaction or Suspicious Activity Report.

Clause 10 would detail the powers of the FIU.

Clause 11 would make it an offense for a financial institution or listed business to withhold information requested by the FIU.

Clause 12 would empower the FIU to grant approvals for the completion of certain transactions.

Clause 13 would empower the FIU to give certain instructions to financial institutions and listed business.

Clause 14 would authorize the FIU to forward a report to the relevant investigative authority when, after having received a Suspicious Transaction or Suspicious Activity Report, the Director is of the view that the report requires investigation.

Clause 15 would provide for the FIU to co-operate or liaise with other institutions in the performance of its functions.

Clause 16 would require the FIU to publish a list of countries that are not in compliance with the recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, as well as information on typologies of money laundering offences for purposes of enhancing public awareness of this subject matter.

Clause 17 would place an obligation on the Director to submit an annual report to the Minister of Finance, on the performance of the FIU.

Part IV “Offences and Penalties” would contain clauses 19 to 27.

Clause 18 would identify the Director, Deputy Director and officers of the FIU as FIU officers for the purposes of the Part.

Clause 19 would provide the penalty for persons who do not return the identification provided by the FIU.

Clause 20 would provide the penalties for a financial institution or listed business which commits an offence under clause 11.

Clause 21 would provide the penalty for an offence of disclosure of information by a FIU officer otherwise than in the course of his duties.

Clause 22 would provide the penalty for disclosure of information by a person other than a FIU officer.

Clause 23 would provide for a penalty for disclosure of information by a FIU officer.

Clause 24 would provide protection from personal liability where a FIU officer does any or omits to do an act in good faith.

Clause 25 would provide for any conflict between this Act and any other Act where the subject matter is disclosure of personal information.

Clause 26 would empower the Minister to make regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the Act.

The Schedule would provide the form of the Oath of Office required by clause 6.

BILL

AN ACT to establish the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago, for the implementation of the anti-money laundering policies of the Financial Action Task Force.

[, 2009]

WHEREAS it is enacted inter alia, by subsection (1) of ^{Preamble} section 13 of the Constitution, that an Act to which that section applies, may expressly declare that it shall have effect though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution and if any such Act does so declare, it shall have effect accordingly:

And whereas it is provided by subsection (2) of section 13 of the Constitution, that an Act to which this section applies, is one the Bill for which has been passed by both Houses of Parliament and at the final vote thereon in each House has been supported by the votes of not less than three-fifths of all the members of that House:
