GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO UPDATED PUBLIC STATEMENT OF
THE NATIONAL LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SYSTEM AUTHORITY (NALIS)

IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTIONS 7, 8 AND 9 OF
THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) 1999

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS PUBLISHED BY THE NATIONAL LIBRARY
AND INFORMATION SYSTEM AUTHORITY (NALIS)

In accordance with Sections 7, 8, and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 1999, the National Library and Information System Authority (NALIS) is required by law to publish the following statement, which is an update of the statement published in January, 2006. This statement lists the documents and information generally available to the public. The Act gives the public a general right of access to official documents held by the National Library and Information System Authority (NALIS), namely:-

1. A legal right for each person to access information held by NALIS;
2. A legal right for each person to have official information relating to him/herself amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading;
3. A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant's request for information under the FOIA;
4. A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

Section 7 Statements

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

Function and Structure of NALIS

Mission Statement:

The Mission of NALIS is:-

"To provide an international standard of service that delivers equitable access to information in all formats through highly capable and motivated staff, utilizing state of the art technologies and facilities to support the developmental and recreational needs of Trinidad and Tobago."

The National Library and Information System Authority is a Statutory Body, established by Act No. 18 of 1998, which provides for "the development and coordination of all library and information services in Trinidad and Tobago and related matters."

This Act incorporated the then existing three Public Library Services into the Authority. It also created the mechanism for bringing special libraries, libraries in the education sector and public libraries in Tobago under the ambit of the Authority. This is done through Memoranda of Understanding with Permanent Secretaries, Heads of Department, Heads of Statutory Authorities and the appropriate officer of the Tobago House of Assembly, regarding the management of libraries under their control. (Cl. 6 (1) Act No. 18 of 1998).

Section 9 (1) of this Act provides for the establishment of a Board, the principal duty of which is to ensure the proper and efficient performance of the functions of NALIS. This Board comprises nine (9) persons drawn from various disciplines and includes the Executive Director, who is an ex-officio member.

The administration of NALIS is headed by an Executive Director and Deputy Executive Director, who are appointed by the President, in accordance with Sections 12 and 17 of the Act respectively.

The overall staffing of all libraries within NALIS totals about 700 persons. The Head Office of the Authority is located at the National Library of Trinidad and Tobago, Corner Hart and Abercromby Streets, Port of Spain. NALIS comprises eleven (11) Divisions and Departments which are headed by Directors or professional Heads of Departments.

These Divisions and Departments and an overview of their functions are as follows:-

1. Office of the Executive Director – The Executive Director is charged with managing "the affairs of NALIS subject to the directions of and in accordance with policies determined by the Board."

2. The Public Libraries Division - is responsible for administering and coordinating the network of Public Libraries and Mobile Libraries serving citizens throughout Trinidad. Libraries are located in Port of Spain, St. James, Diego Martin, San Juan, Tunapuna, Maloney, Arima, Sangre Grande, St. Helena, Mayaro, San Fernando, Couva, Chaguanas, Princes Town, Moruga, La Brea, Point Fortin, Siparia, Cedros and Debe. Forty-One (41) mobile library stops are distributed in North, East, Central and South Trinidad, as well as 8 book drops to preschools in the North Region. The Division is also responsible for two institutional libraries at the Youth Training Centre and the Women's Prison, Golden Grove.

3. The Heritage Library Division - is responsible for acquiring, preserving and facilitating access to all material pertinent to Trinidad and Tobago and the Caribbean. The Heritage Library is located on the Second Floor of the National Library of Trinidad and Tobago, Port of Spain, and is freely accessible to members of the public for the conduct of research and reference in Trinidad and Tobago and Caribbean subject areas.

4. The Educational Library Services Division - is responsible for staff and professional services, including the information and literacy curriculum in libraries in the education sector. The main offices are located on the third floor of the National Library of Trinidad and Tobago, Port of Spain.

5. The Information Networks Division is responsible for:-

- (i) Provision of technology for on-line information access throughout the library services,
- (ii) Maintenance of the NALIS Website,
- (iii) Coordinating the Special Libraries in Government Ministries

and Departments,

The main offices are located on the third floor of the National Library of Trinidad and Tobago, Port of Spain.

6. Technical Services Department - is responsible for the selection, acquisition, processing and distribution of all informational library materials needed by the Heritage and Public Library Services.

7. Corporate Legal Services – There is a Corporate Secretary who advises the Board and the Authority on legal and procedural matters and acts as Secretary to the Board.

8. Finance Division – is responsible for designing and implementing proper systems and controls to ensure efficient and effective use of funds allocated to NALIS, safeguarding assets and ensuring proper accountability in accordance with all relevant rules and regulations.

9. Human Resource Management Division – is responsible for Terms and Conditions of Employment, Training and Industrial Relations.

10. Public Relations and Marketing - is responsible for the Authority's internal and external corporate communications, for promoting NALIS' products and services as well as planning and implementing staff activities and programmes.

11. Research Planning and Development – is responsible for planning, organizing and conducting programmes of research into areas related to library services.

Effect of functions on members of the public

1. Public libraries are freely accessible to all citizens, both children and adults, for:-

- (i) Consultation of newspapers, periodicals, reference materials and electronic resources,
- (ii) Borrowing of lending materials, after completing registration procedures,
- (iii) Accessing information on the Internet using public service computers,
- (iv) Basic instruction and guidance in the use of computers for effective information access on the Internet,
- (v) Participating in a wide range of social and cultural programmes.

2. Special activities such as storytelling, book clubs, Internet training, various competitions and workshops are organized for children at all service points of the public library system.

3. Adult literacy classes, organized by the Adult Literacy Tutors Association (ALTA) are facilitated at Public Libraries, in addition to Youth Literacy classes for young persons between the ages of 9 - 11 and 13- 15 years.

4. The Heritage Library, the Adult, the Young Adult and Children's Libraries in Port of Spain and all Public Libraries are freely accessible to all for consulting reference materials and for computer access for Internet searching.

5. Libraries in schools in the Secondary and Primary sectors impact upon the education of the vast majority of the students in the school system.

Section 7 (1) (a) (ii)
