Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

Updated Public Statement of the Office of the Parliament

In accordance with sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) [Act No. 26 of 1999], the Office of the Parliament is required by law to publish the following statements:

SECTION 7 - STATEMENTS

Section 7 (1)(a)(i)

Structure and Function of the Office of the Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

The offices of the Parliament have their origins in the Department of the Colonial Secretary's Office, which was in existence up to the attainment of Independence in 1962. The Trinidad and Tobago (Constitution) Order in Council, 1961 created the bi-cameral Legislature that is in operation today. The Legislature today is supported by an organization comprising over 100 members of staff, the administrative management of which is exercised by the Clerk of the House.

The Mission of the Office of the Parliament is:-

“To provide Parliamentarians with timely procedural advice and essential professional support services, in order that they may carry out their responsibilities as legislators in an informed and efficient manner”

The key objectives of the Office of the Parliament are:

1. Ensuring that the Houses of Parliament and their Committees have the necessary procedural, administrative and research support to effectively carry out their functions;
2. Providing all Members with the requisite advice and assistance regardless of party or office;
3. Providing efficient and effective service delivery while at the same time ensuring that resources are allocated responsibly and utilized to their maximum capacity;
4. Increasing public understanding of Parliament and its institutions;

621—Continued

5. Developing its physical and human resources so that the organization will be equipped to anticipate and manage changes in the organization's environment.

The Office of the Parliament is divided into the following responsibility areas:

1. Parliament Secretariat:
  - Offices of the Presiding Officers (President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives)
  - Office of the Clerk of the House
  - Office of the Clerk of the Senate
  - Office of Committees
  - Office of the Public Accounts Committee and Public Accounts (Enterprises) Committee
2. Office of the Marshal of the Parliament
3. Financial Services Unit
4. Administrative Services Unit
5. Auditing Unit
6. Pension and Leave Unit
7. Communications and Public Education Unit
8. Hansard Unit
9. Human Resource Management Unit
10. Information Systems Unit
11. Parliament Library
12. Records Management Unit

The Offices of the Leader of the Opposition and the Ombudsman fall under the jurisdiction of the Parliament and include members of staff of the Office of the Parliament, but maintain separate functions.

PARLIAMENT SECRETARIAT

Purpose: To provide professional advice and assistance to the Presiding Officers and Members of Parliament in support of their parliamentary duties.

Responsibilities include:-

- Ensuring that the Houses of Parliament have the necessary procedural advice, information and secretarial support services to effectively carry out their functions
- Preparing the Order Papers and other departmental documents

621—Continued

- Researching matters of procedure and preparing papers occasionally on parliamentary matters
- Maintaining manual and computerized records of all the legislative and other activities of the Office of the Parliament
- Preparing Bills passed by both Houses, for Presidential assent (and proclamation)
- Responding to requests for information and advice from Members of Parliament. Response is also made to requests from the public and private sectors, the general public, other Parliaments, regional and international organizations
- Providing secretariat services to the Presiding Officers
- Providing secretariat services to the Trinidad and Tobago Branch of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association.

Committees for which the Secretariat is responsible:-

Sessional Select Committees
