Section 7(1)(a)(v)*Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from PSAEL

PSAEL's policy is to answer all requests for information whether oral or written. However, in order to access your rights under the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if your request for information is refused), you must make your request in writing. The following procedure should be followed when making a request:

1. Obtain the FOIA Application Form (Request for access to Official Documents) from PSAEL or download a copy from the Government's FOIA website www.foia.gov.tt
2. Requests must be addressed to the Designated Officer of PSAEL named in section 7 (1) (a)(vi).
3. Pursuant to Section 13(2) of the FOIA, your request need not be specific but sufficient information is to be provided so that the document may be identified with reasonable effort. If insufficient information is provided clarification will be sought from the applicant.

4. There is a time limit of not later than thirty days after the day on which your request is made for PSAEL to take reasonable steps to enable you to be notified of the approval or refusal of your request (Section 15). If PSAEL fails to meet the deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as if your request has been denied. We will try diligently to comply with the time limit, but if it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, we will acknowledge your request and advise you of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be misaddressed or misrouted, you may wish to call or write to confirm that we have received the request and to ascertain its status.
5. Upon any consultation between yourself and the Designated Officer time is suspended in the computation of the thirty-day period (Section 21{7}).
6. PSAEL will give you a notice in writing of its decision and the reasons for the decision taken (Section 23{1}).
7. You have the right to correct, by supplementing, amending or deleting, personal information in an official document if the information is inaccurate, incomplete, misleading or not relevant to the purpose for which the document is held by the Company (Section 36).
8. If your request for some or all of the information or for correction to personal information is denied and you are dissatisfied with the reasons, then you have the right to:
  - a) Write to the Ombudsman within twenty-one days of receiving the decision of the Company (Section 38a).
  - b) Apply to the High Court for Judicial Review of the decision (Section 39). Please note however, that pursuant to Section 11 of the Judicial Review Act, No. 60 of 2000 an application for judicial review shall be made promptly and in any event within three months from the date of the decision.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information which is currently available in the public domain, either from PSAEL or from another public authority, for example brochures and pamphlets etc.

Responding to requests

Prior to the commencement of the FOIA, old records may have been destroyed. The granting of a request for such documents may therefore be impossible. Various laws, regulations and manuals give the time periods for keeping records before they may be destroyed e.g. The Exchequer and Audit Act, Chap. 69:01.

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, we may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in our reply. Please note that we are not compelled to do the following:

- a. Create new documents. For example, we are not required to write new programs so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
