The FOIA gives members of the public –

3. A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant's request for information under the FOIA;
4. A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

SECTION 7 – STATEMENTS

Section 7(1)(a)(i) – Structure, Function and Particulars

Establishment of the Environmental Commission

The Environmental Commission was established by Section 81(1) of the Environmental Management Act, 2000, for the purpose of exercising the jurisdiction conferred upon it by that Act or by any other written law. The Commission was operationalized on October 30, 2000 with the appointment of the first cadre of Commissioners.

Vision Statement

The Environmental Commission, a superior court of record, will be a court characterised by excellence, which strives to attain justice through the rule of law. The Commission will be the premier environmental court in the region setting the trend in environmental decision-making and the utilisation of case management methodology and court and information technology.

Mission Statement

The Environmental Commission shall, in a fair, accessible, effective, and efficient manner, resolve environmental disputes arising under the law and shall interpret and apply the law consistently, impartially, and independently to protect the rights of citizens while being cognizant of the need for the balancing of economic growth with environmentally sound practices.

Constitution of the Environmental Commission and Organizational Structure

The Judicial Arm of the Commission is supported by an Administrative Staff which, as at February 21, 2006, consist of twenty-two persons (twenty (20) Public Service Posts and two (2) contracted posts) with the Registrar, Mr. Andrew Dalip Jr. as the Administrative Head of the Registry. The Chairman of the Commission is Her Honor Sandra Paul.

The membership of the Commission currently comprises a full-time Chairman, a full-time Deputy Chairman and three (3) part-time members. Provision is however made for a full-time Chairman and five (5) other members, including a Deputy Chairman, each of whom may be appointed to serve in a full-time, part-time or periodic capacity. In accordance with the Environmental Management Act, 2000 His Excellency the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago appoints Members of the Commission for a term of not less than three (3) years under such conditions of service as determined by the President. The Chairman and Deputy Chairman are required to be Attorneys-at-Law of not less than ten (10) years standing. The other Members are required to be appointed by the President from among such persons as appear to the President to be qualified by virtue of their knowledge of, or experience in environmental issues, engineering, natural sciences or the social sciences. The composition of the Commission is designed to ensure that the Commission is comprised of persons with qualifications, training and experience in both the legal and technical aspects of the complex environmental matters ventilated before the Commission.

The Organizational Chart of the Commission as at February 21, 2006 is contained herein at Appendix I.

Functions of the Environmental Commission

The functions of the Environmental Commission are a direct corollary of its specific jurisdiction under the Environmental Management Act, 2000. This is set out in Section 81(5) of that Act and includes jurisdiction to hear and determine:

- (a) Appeals from decisions or actions of the Environmental Management Authority (“EMA”) (as specifically authorized under the Environmental Management Act, 2000);

329—Continued

- (b) Applications for deferment of decisions made under Section 25 (for the EMA to undertake emergency response activities) or under Section 41 (to designate environmentally sensitive areas or environmentally sensitive species);
- (c) Applications by the EMA for the enforcement of any Consent Agreement or any final Administrative Order;
- (d) Administrative civil assessments;
- (e) Appeals from the designation of environmentally sensitive areas or environmentally sensitive species by the EMA;
- (f) Appeals from a decision by the EMA under Section 36 of the Environmental Management Act, 2000 to refuse to issue a Certificate of Environmental Clearance or to grant such Certificate with conditions;
- (g) Appeals from any determination by the EMA to disclose information or materials claimed as a trade secret or confidential business information under Section 23(3) of the Environmental Management Act, 2000;
- (h) Direct private party actions under Section 69 of the Environmental Management Act, 2000; and
- (i) Such other matters as may be prescribed by or arise under the Environmental Management Act, 2000 or any other written law where jurisdiction in the Commission is specifically provided.

Effects of Functions of the Environmental Commission on Members of the Public:

The work of the Environmental Commission impacts directly and indirectly on members of the public as well as future generations of citizens of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. The Commission in its judgements and orders elucidates the principles by which the EMA and members of the public are to be guided in seeking to comply with the Environmental Management Act, 2000 and the subsidiary legislation made thereunder. The Commission also has a statutory duty to encourage and promote the use of alternative dispute resolution, being any mechanism for resolving disputes other than by way of litigation.
