National Infrastructure Development Company Limited

Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

Public Statement of The National Infrastructure Development Company Limited

In Compliance with sections 7, 8 and 9 of

The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 1999

In accordance with Sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act, 1999 ("FOIA"), the National Infrastructure Development Company Limited ("NIDCO") is required by law to publish the statements contained herein, which list the documents and information generally available to the public.

The Freedom of Information Act gives members of the public:

- (1) A legal right for each person to access information held by NIDCO;
- (2) A legal right for each person to have official information relating to him or herself amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading;
- (3) A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant's request for information under the FOIA; and
- (4) A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

Section 7 Statements

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

Mission of NIDCO

NIDCO's mission is to manage the procurement and delivery of Government-assigned infrastructural, developmental and land use projects so as to satisfy the stated goals and objectives, and achieve seamless integration with the countrywide infrastructure development programme.

Function and Structure of NIDCO

NIDCO is a wholly owned State Enterprise falling under the purview of the Ministry of Works and Transport. NIDCO was incorporated under the Companies Act, 1995 on 11 January, 2005. NIDCO commenced operations in November 2005. Its principal place of business is Algico Plaza, 91-93 St. Vincent Street, Port of Spain.

NIDCO is headed by a Board of Directors appointed by the Government. The Directors who are listed below control the overall direction of the business of NIDCO:

Mr. David Brash	Chairman
Mr. Basil Aleong	Deputy Chairman
Mr. Keith Awong	Director
Ms. Merlin Boyce	Director
Mr. Gregory David	Director
Mr. Garnet Hanson	Director

The Board is supported by a Corporate Secretary whose responsibility includes that good corporate governance practices are adhered to.

The Executive Management Team is responsible for the Management of the Company and reports to the Board via the President. NIDCO currently employs thirty-one (31) persons and is divided into five (5) responsibility centres:

- Procurement and Contracts Management
- Corporate Secretarial and Legal Services
- Finance
- Corporate Services
- Programme Management

Organizational Structure of NIDCO

Functions of the responsibility centres of NIDCO

Procurement and Contracts deals with the acquisition of the services of Consultants, Contractors, Materials and Property. In addition to managing the issuance and compliance of Contracts, all stages of the process reflect the highest standards of integrity, transparency and professionalism.

Corporate Secretarial and Legal Services provides corporate secretarial and legal services to NIDCO. The main function of the legal department is to provide legal advice to NIDCO and each of its departments in the performance of their various business functions. The Corporate Secretary is required to attend Board Meetings and perform duties as company secretary.

Corporate Services coordinates and manages a team of departmental units providing guidance and direction as necessary. The reporting units are Human Resource, HSSE and General Services.

Finance provides a comprehensive, accurate, reliable, and timely management financial accounting service to the Company. Finance also ensures that the organization complies with financial regulations governing state enterprises.

Programme Management directs a portfolio of projects that run simultaneously. This allows the Unit to share resources and integrate deliverables of each project into one overall programme.

Effect of Functions on Members of the Public

NIDCO has been assigned infrastructural projects geared towards alleviating poor or inadequate infrastructures. NIDCO's projects are designed to serve the citizens of Trinidad and Tobago by improving drainage systems, mitigating floods in flood prone areas, rehabilitating rivers, extending highways and developing the transportation sector.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v):
Procedure to be followed when Accessing a Document from NIDCO

How to Request Information:

- General Procedure
NIDCO's policy is to answer all requests for information. However, in order to have the rights given to you by the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if your request for information is refused), all requests must be made in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form "Request for Access to Official Documents" available at NIDCO's Reception for information that is not readily available in the public domain.
- Addressing Requests
To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to the Designated Officer of NIDCO.
- Details in the Request
Applicants should provide sufficient details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant in an attempt to comply with the request. Please contact the Designated Officer if assistance is required.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

- A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information, which is readily available in the public domain, either from NIDCO or from another public authority.

Responding to Requests

- Retrieving Documents
NIDCO will furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession. Information stored in the National Archives or other storage centres, will be retrieved in order to process any request.

National Infrastructure Development Company Limited

○ Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information NIDCO has in its possession, custody or power. NIDCO is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If NIDCO cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, NIDCO will not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, NIDCO will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality in the reply.

Please note that NIDCO is not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents, write a new programme so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- (b) Perform research for you.

Time Limits

○ General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days from the date the request was received for determination of your request for access to documents. If NIDCO fails to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. However, NIDCO will try diligently to comply with your request within the stipulated time-frame. If it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, NIDCO will advise you of its status. Since there is the possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, you may wish to call or write to confirm that NIDCO has received the request and to ascertain the status of the matter.

○ Time Allowed

NIDCO will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to information requested, you will be permitted to inspect the documents and/ or be provided with copies.
