FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) 1999
PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE NURSING COUNCIL OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO (NCTT)
 IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTIONS 7, 8 AND 9 OF THE FREEDOM
 OF INFORMATION ACT, No. 26 of 1999

Under the Freedom of Information Act, No. 26 of 1999 each Public Authority is required to publish an annual Statement of Affairs. This Statement describes the structure and functions of the Nursing Council of Trinidad and Tobago (herein after called the Council) and lists categories of documents held by the Council which are available for public scrutiny. The Act gives the public a general right of access (with exemptions) to official documents held by the Council.

Section 7 – STATEMENTS

(i) Statement on the organization and functions of the Council.

The Nursing Council of Trinidad and Tobago (NCTT), is located at 25/26 Victoria Square West, Port of Spain. It is the Regulatory Body incorporated by an Act of Parliament for the regulation of the nursing and midwifery professions and the protection of the public.

The Nursing Council of Trinidad and Tobago (NCTT) was established in June 1950 by the Nurses and Midwives Registration Ordinance (since repealed) and continued under the Nurses and Midwives Registration Act No. 33 of 1960 now Chapter 29:53 This Act provides for the “Registration of Nurses, Midwives and Nursing Assistants, and for other matters connected therewith.”

The Mission of the Council

The Mission of the Council is to safeguard the public interest by regulating the professions of Nursing and Midwifery through its legal obligations for registration, enrolment and disciplining of nursing personnel practising locally and abroad; establishing and monitoring standards of nursing and midwifery education; and maintaining the integrity of the professions.

The Vision

To strengthen our position as a performance-driven, customer-centric organization which is sensitive to the needs of our stakeholders, ensures professional standards and promotes best practices and excellence in nursing within the context of environmental dynamics and change.

Composition of the Council

The Council is comprised of twenty-two persons.

The Chief Medical Officer and the Chief Nursing Officer - ex-officio members
Five persons appointed by the Minister of Health who have special interest and experience in matters pertaining to nursing

Two persons appointed by the Medical Board

Eleven persons of whom no more than two shall be medical practitioners, elected by persons who are registered as nurses under the Act at the date of the election

One person elected from among their own number by the persons who are registered as midwives under the Act at the date of the election; and

One person elected from among their own number by the persons who are registered as mental nurses under the Act at the date of the election.

Members, other than the ex-officio members, hold office for three years but are eligible for re-election or re-appointment.

718—Continued

The Ordinary Meeting of the Council is held once per month

Executive Members

The President, Vice-President and the Treasurer are elected officers who form part of the Executive.

Functions of the Council

The Council assists and advises the Minister of Health on matters pertaining to nursing care for the sick and midwifery services in Trinidad and Tobago, and in particular on the establishment of a recruitment and training programme for the provision and maintenance of the care and of the services.

The core functions of the Council are conducted by Committees namely:

Finance and Administration ; Education ; Registration and Midwifery Committees.

The Disciplinary Committee is an ad hoc committee which is convened in response to complaints brought against nurses, midwives and nursing assistants.

A Specialty Committee examines specialty areas in nursing for which accreditation is considered.

- Standards: The Council sets standards for nursing and midwifery education and nursing practice. It also sets the codes of conduct for nursing and midwifery.
- Education: Conducts examinations at all levels of training in General and Mental Nursing
Reviews transcripts of applicants seeking registration
Interviews applicants (whose first language is not English) seeking registration in Trinidad and Tobago
Approves nursing curricula and sets syllabi for nursing, midwifery and the training of nursing assistants
Attends to matters pertaining to nursing students in accordance with the Nurses and Midwives Registration Act.
- Midwifery: Conducts examinations in Midwifery
Reviews transcripts of applicants for the practice of midwifery
Revises midwifery curricula
Attends to matters related to pupil midwives in accordance with the Nurses and Midwives Registration Act
- Registration: Registers General Nurses, Mental Nurses and Midwives and enrolls Nursing Assistants
- Discipline: Investigates allegations of misconduct and unfitness to practice
Takes disciplinary action where there is evidence in support of the allegation.
Cancels or suspends the registration of the nurse, midwife or nursing assistant as deemed fit
Reinstates a nurse, midwife or nursing assistant where applicable
- Accreditation: Inspects and Approves/Accredits places of training and affiliate places of training for student nurses and nursing assistants.
- Advocacy: Advocates for patients and the public in matters relating to health care.

Effects of the functions on the Public

- The composition of the membership on the Council is representative of persons or bodies with special interest and experience reflective of the varying publics. These persons are part of the decision-making process
- Functions such as the formulation of Nursing Standards, Codes of Conduct and Certification of Practitioners direct the level and quality of care that ought to be provided to the public at institutions, both public and private.
- Accreditation of institutions to be designated as approved and/or affiliate places of training for student nurses and/or nursing assistants ensures the suitability and adequacy of the facilities to provide nursing care at the required standard and assures quality and the safety of the patient/clients.
- The advisory and advocacy roles impact directly on the response by the Council to the needs/demands of patients.

(v) Statement of procedure to be followed in requesting access to documents and responding to requests.

Our policy is to answer all written requests for information.

To access a copy of a document from the Council that is not in the public domain, the applicant must make the request on the prescribed form (Request for Access to official documents) available at the office.

The request should provide enough information to enable the officer who is designated to deal with the request to identify and locate the records the client wished to acquire. If insufficient information is provided, the Council will seek clarification from the applicant.

Should the applicant be uncertain as to the details to be included, the designated officer will assist with details which must be included.

The client will be notified in writing as to the status of the request as soon as possible within thirty days.

Initially, the document will be made available for viewing.

Should a copy of the document be required by the client, the Council is required to furnish only one copy of a document in its possession, custody or power, free of charge. If the copy of the document is not legible, Council will not attempt to reconstruct it but furnish the best possible copy and note its quality in our reply.

The document can then be collected from the Council at the given address within seven days upon receipt of payment. Council will try diligently to comply with the time limits. If it appears however, that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, Council will acknowledge the request and advise the applicant accordingly of the status.
