HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

BILL

AN ACT to provide for the variation of certain duties and taxes, the introduction of other provisions of a fiscal nature and related matters

THE FINANCE BILL, 2012

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

This Bill seeks to amend several pieces of legislation, namely the Retiring Allowances (Legislative Service) Act, Chap 2:03, the Gambling and Betting Act, Chap. 11:19, the Prison Service Act, Chap. 13:02, the Police Service Act, Chap. 15:01, the Registrar General Act, Chap. 19:03, the Municipal Corporations (Pensions) Act, Chap. 25:05, the National Insurance Act, Chap. 32:01, the Senior Citizens' Pension Act, Chap. 32:02, the Public Assistance Act, Chap. 32:03, the Fire Service Act, Chap. 35:50, the Council of Legal Education Act, Chap. 39:50, the Petroleum Production Levy and Subsidy Act, Chap. 62:02, the Income Tax Act, Chap. 75:01, the Corporation Tax Act, Chap. 75:02, the Valued Added Tax Act, Chap. 75:06, the Stamp Duty Act, Chap. 76:01, the Miscellaneous Taxes Act, Chap. 77:01, the Central Bank Act, Chap. 79:02, the Companies Act, Chap. 81:01 and the Fiscal Incentives Act, Chap. 85:01.

Clause 1 would provide for the short title and commencement of certain Parts of the Act.

Clause 2 of the Bill would amend the Retiring Allowances (Legislative Service) Act, Chap. 2:03 by increasing the minimum retiring allowance payable to legislators as well as to the widows and children of these legislators to $3000.00 per month.

Clause 3 of the Bill would amend the Gambling and Betting Act, Chap. 11:19 to increase the penalties for unlicensed betting activity and the under reporting of tax income by licensed betting offices.

Clause 4 of the Bill would amend the Prison Service Act, Chap. 13:02 to allow members of the Prison Service to receive a duty allowance.

Clause 5 of the Bill would amend the the Police Service Act, Chap. 15:01 to allow members of the Police Service to receive a duty allowance.

Clause 6 of the Bill would amend the Registrar General Act, Chap. 19:03 by inserting a new section 7A to waive the fees that the Government is required to pay under that Act with effect from 1st January, 2011.

Clause 7 of the Bill would amend the Municipal Corporations (Pensions) Act, Chap. 25:05 by inserting three new sections—14A, 14B and 14C. Section 14A would provide for the computation of pension in respect of service in an acting capacity, prior to compulsory retirement. Section 14B would provide for the computation of pension in respect of service on promotion following an acting appointment, prior to compulsory retirement. Section 14C would provide for the commencement date.

Clause 8 of the Bill would amend the National Insurance Act, Chap. 32:01 to insert a new section 39C to grant a waiver in respect of all penalties and interest due and payable under section 39B in respect of contributions outstanding as at 16th September. It also amends section 54B to increase the minimum retirement pension from two thousand dollars ($2000.00) to three thousand dollars ($3000.00).

Clause 9 of the Bill would amend the Senior Citizens' Pension Act, Chap. 32:02 by inserting a new section 3A to allow certain persons to be paid such senior citizens' pension as would ensure that their net income will be not less than the net income they were in receipt of prior to 1st February, 2012.

Clause 10 of the Bill would amend the Public Assistance Act, Chap. 32:03 to remove the upper age limit to qualify for the Disability Assistance Grant and to allow the Board to consider applications from applicants who have been absent from Trinidad and Tobago for more than six months for medical purposes.

Clause 11 of the Bill would amend the Fire Service Act, Chap. 35:50 to allow members of the Fire Service to receive a duty allowance.

Clause 12 of the Bill would amend the Council of Legal Education Act, Chap. 39:50 to exempt the Council of Legal Education from the payment of Motor Vehicles Tax on all vehicles purchased for its personal use.

Clause 13 of the Bill would amend the Petroleum Production Levy and Subsidy Act, Chap. 62:02—

- (a) in section 10(1), by increasing the penalties payable by a person engaged in any petroleum production business who fails or refuses to pay the requisite petroleum production levy within the time specified under section 9(2) of the Act;

- (b) in section 17(1), to make the exportation of petroleum products or an attempt to export petroleum products obtained from sales by retail a summary offence, the maximum penalty for which would be five years imprisonment along with significantly higher fines than are currently payable under the Act; and
- (c) in section 18(1), by increasing the general penalty payable by any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of the Act or any Regulations made under the Act from one thousand dollars and six months imprisonment to ten thousand dollars and two years imprisonment.

Clause 14 of the Bill would amend the Income Tax Act, Chap. 75:01 in the manner detailed hereunder—

Clause 14(a) would insert a new paragraph (z) in section 8 to allow the duty allowance of $1000.00, granted to members of the Prison Service, Fire Service and Defence Force to be exempted from income tax.

Clause 14(b) would allow for portability of pension fund plans or deferred annuity plans at the discretion of employees or annuitants. Furthermore, two errors in section 28(14B) were corrected with effect from January 1, 2007.

Clause 15 of the Bill would amend section 3 of the Corporation Tax Act, Chap. 75:02 to provide for an incentive structure for small and medium enterprise companies listed on the Trinidad and Tobago Stock Exchange.

Clause 16 of the Bill would amend the Valued Added Tax Act, Chap. 75:06 in the manner detailed hereunder—

Clause 16(a) and (b) would amend sections 21 and 22 respectively, by increasing the threshold for the qualification for VAT registration from two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) to three hundred and sixty thousand dollars ($360,000). This has become necessary as a result of inflation that has eroded the value of the threshold for the qualification for VAT registration.

Clause 16(c) would amend section 23(2), by increasing the penalty for the offence committed by unregistered persons who collect monies under the guise of VAT collection and do not remit those sums to the relevant authority. The penalty is increased from thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) and imprisonment for two (2) years to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and imprisonment for three (3) years.

Clause 16(d), (e), (f) and (g) amends the penalties for the offences stipulated in sections 27(4), 28(4), 31(5) and 36(4) respectively, so as to provide for an increase of the maximum penalty that may be imposed by a Court.

Clause 16(h) would amend section 38(5), by increasing the penalty of VAT registered persons not keeping books and records which can be used to ascertain the liability of that person to tax. The penalty is increased from fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) and imprisonment for one (1) year to thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) and imprisonment for two (2) years so as to be consistent with the penalties imposed under the Income Tax Act, Chap. 75:01.

Clause 16(i) would amend section 56, by increasing the penalty for all forms of VAT evasion from fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and increasing the term of imprisonment from one (1) year to three (3) years so as to be consistent with the penalties imposed under the Income Tax Act, Chap. 75:01.

Clause 16(j) would repeal and replace section 58 that deals with the issue of the limitation period of prosecution. This amendment is required to ensure conformity with the Income Tax Act, Chap. 75:01.

Clause 17 of the Bill would amend the Stamp Duty Act, Chap. 76:01. Clause 17(a) would amend section 2, by amending the definition of “stamp” and inserting the definitions of “die” and “impressed” so as to accommodate any technology which is currently being used for the purpose of placing stamps on documents and to acknowledge the potential advancement in technology. Clause 17(b) would insert a new section 14A to validate any instruments purported to have been stamped as required by the Act on or after 1st January, 1991.

Clause 18 of the Bill would amend the Miscellaneous Taxes Act, Chap. 77:01, by inserting the words “environmental education and public awareness of environmental issues” so as to broaden the scope of activities and persons that would be eligible for access to the Green Fund and also to expand the criteria for qualifications of members who would be considered eligible for selection to the Green Fund Advisory Committee.

Clause 19 of the Bill would amend the Central Bank Act, Chap. 79:02, by inserting a new section 44E(9), which would preserve the rights of persons who may have a cause of action against an institution which is under the emergency control of the Bank.

Clause 20 of the Bill would amend the Companies Act, Chap. 81:01 in the manner detailed hereunder—

Clause 20(a) would amend section 516, by changing the penalty for late delivery or filing of documents from one hundred dollars ($100) for each month that a document is not delivered or filed to five hundred dollars ($500) for each year that the document is not delivered or filed.

Clause 20(b) would insert a new section 516A so as to grant a waiver for the period October 10, 2011 to December 31, 2012 in respect of all penalties outstanding or chargeable by reason of sections 156 and 516 or failure to file and deliver any forms or documents to the Registrar of Companies. However, companies are not absolved of the obligation and the relevant filing fees, as they currently apply, in respect of each form or document are paid.

Clause 21 of the Bill would amend section 2 of the Fiscal Incentives Act, Chap. 85:01 to insert the words “or service” and the words “information services and processing” in the definition of “approved product” and “industry”, respectively.
