National Infrastructure Development Company Limited

Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago
Public Statement of the National Infrastructure Development company Limited
 In Compliance with sections 7,8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act Chapter 22: 02

In accordance with Sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act, Chapter 22: 02 ("FOIA"), the National Infrastructure Development Company Limited ("NIDCO") is required by law to publish the statements contained herein, which list the documents and information generally available to the public.

The FOIA gives members of the public:

- A legal right for each person to access information held by NIDCO;
- A legal right for each person to have official information relating to him or herself amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading;
- A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant's request for information under the FOIA ; and
- A legal right to complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

Section 7 Statements

Mission of NIDCO

To fulfill our role as the leading project executing agency, through a philosophy of managing our business with the highest ethical standards, providing optimal quality and value, while acting in a responsible manner with our employees, our stakeholders and environmental policies.

Function and Structure of NIDCO

NIDCO is a wholly owned State Enterprise falling under the purview of the Ministry of Works and Infrastructure. NIDCO was incorporated under the Company's Act , 1995 on 11th January, 2005 and NIDCO commenced operations in November 2005. The Company's principal place of business is No. 3 Melboume Street, Port of Spain.

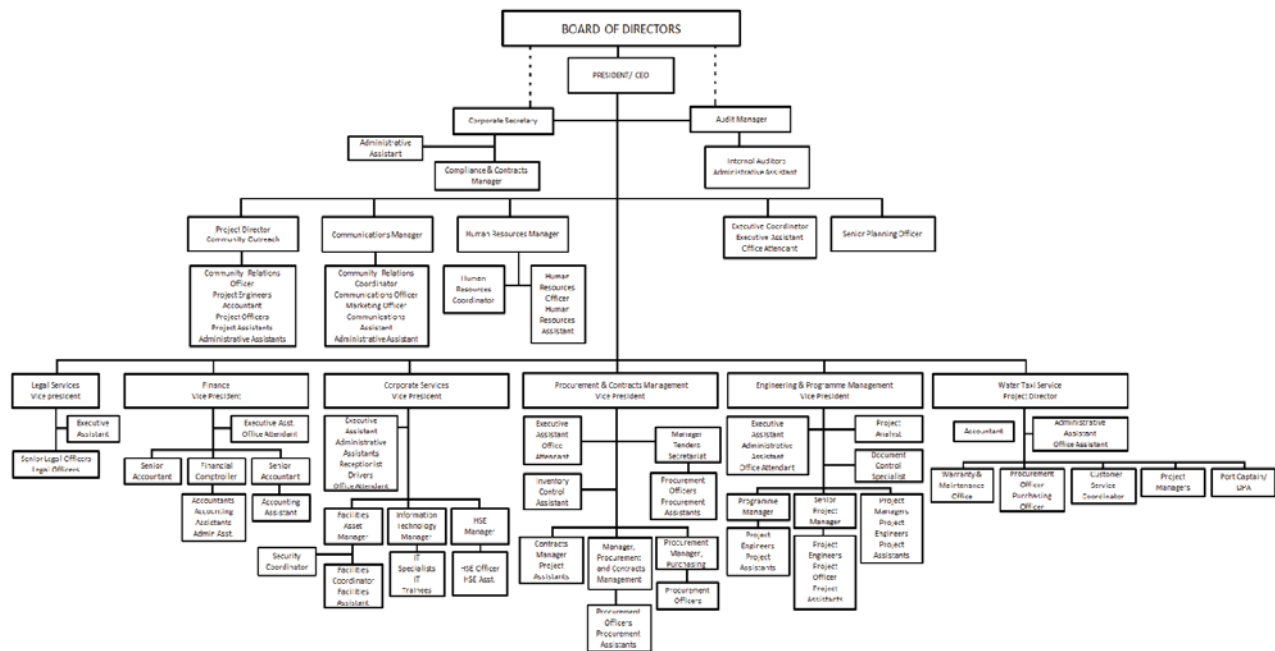

NIDCO's Board of Directors is appointed by the Government. The Corporate Secretary is required to attend board meetings and perform duties as Company Secretary.

NIDCO is headed by a President who is responsible for the management of the Company and is supported by an executive management team.

NIDCO currently employs 180 persons and is divided into 9 responsibility centres.

- Office of the President
- Corporate Secretary
- Legal Services
- Finance
- Audit
- Corporate Services
- Procurement and Contracts Management
- Engineering and Programme Management
- Water Taxi Business Unit

Organizational Structure of NIDCO

Functions of the responsibility centres of NIDCO

Procurement and Contracts deals with the acquisition of the services of Consultants, Contractors, Materials and Property . In addition to managing the issuance and compliance of Contracts, all stages of the process reflect the highest standards of integrity, transparency and professionalism.

Legal Services provides legal services to NIDCO. The main function of the Legal department is to provide advice to NIDCO and each of its departments in the performance of their various business functions.

Corporate Services coordinates and manages a team of departmental units providing guidance and direction as necessary. The reporting units are HSSE and General Services.

Audit provides NIDCO with internal auditing, internal controls, financial reporting oversight and enterprise risk management.

Finance provides a comprehensive accurate, reliable and timely management financial accounting service to the Company . Finance also ensures that the organization complies with financial regulations governing state enterprises.

Engineering and Programme Management directs a portfolio of projects that run simultaneously. This allows the Unit to share resources and integrate deliverables for each project into one overall programme.

Water Taxi Business Unit provides an alternative mode of transportation from San Fernando to Port of Spain along the western coastline.

Effect of Functions on Members of the Public

NIDCO has been assigned infrastructural projects geared towards alleviating poor or inadequate infrastructure.

NIDCO's projects are designed to serve the citizens of Trinidad and Tobago by improving drainage systems, mitigating floods in flood prone areas, rehabilitating rivers, extending highways and developing the transportation sector.

Section 7 (a) (iv)Literature Available by Subscription

NIDCO does not currently publish any documents that are available by way of subscription.

Section 7 (a) (v)Procedure to be followed when Accessing a Document from NIDCO*How to Request Information:*• General Procedure

NIDCO's policy is to answer all requests for information. However, in order to have the rights given to you by the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if your request for information is refused), all requests must be made in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the appropriate form "Request for Access to Official Documents" available at NIDCO's reception for information that is not readily available in the public domain.

• Addressing Requests

To facilitate prompt handling of your request, please address it to the Designated Officer of NIDCO.

• Details in the Request

Applicants should always provide sufficient details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant in an attempt to comply with the request. Please contact the Designated Officer if assistance is required.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

Requests under the FOIA will not be processed if such information is readily available in the public domain, either from NIDCO or from another public authority.

Responding to Requests:• Retrieving Documents

NIDCO will furnish copies of documents upon request where it is in possession of such documents and there is no restriction in law to such disclosure.

• Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information NIDCO has in its possession, custody or power. NIDCO is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If NIDCO cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, NIDCO will not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, NIDCO will furnish the best copy and note its quality in the reply.

Please note that NIDCO is not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents, write a new programme so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer.
- (b) Perform research for you.

Time Limits• General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days from the date the request was received for determination of your request for access to documents. If NIDCO fails to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. However, NIDCO will try diligently to comply with your request within the stipulated time-frame. If it appears that processing your request may take longer than the statutory limit, NIDCO will advise you of its status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, you may wish to call or write to confirm that NIDCO has received the request and to ascertain the status of the matter.

• Time Allowed

NIDCO will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to information requested, you will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)Officers in NIDCO responsible for implementation of the FOIA
