THE MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS (TAX AMNESTY, PENSIONS, FREEDOM OF INFORMATION, NATIONAL
INSURANCE, CENTRAL BANK AND NON-PROFIT
ORGANISATIONS) BILL, 2019

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The Bill seeks to provide a tax amnesty in relation to certain revenue laws and to amend the Retiring Allowances (Legislative Service) Act, Chap. 2:03; the President's Emoluments Act, Chap. 2:50; the Prime Minister's Pensions Act, Chap. 2:51; the Judges Salaries and Pensions Act, Chap. 6:02; the Freedom of Information Act, Chap. 22:02; the National Insurance Act, Chap. 32:01; the Central Bank Act, Chap. 79:02; and the Non-Profit Organisations Act, 2019 (Act No. 7 of 2019).

Clause 2 of the Bill introduces a tax amnesty. The tax amnesty would consist of the waiver of penalties with respect to tax payable under a revenue law specified in the Schedule to the Bill if the tax owed is paid between 15th June, 2019 and 15th September, 2019 or such longer period as the Minister may, by Order, prescribe.

Clauses 4 to 6 of the Bill would respectively amend the Retiring Allowances (Legislative Service) Act, Chap. 2:03; the President's Emoluments Act, Chap. 2:50; the Prime Minister's Pensions Act, Chap. 2:51; and the Judges Salaries and Pensions Act, Chap. 6:02 to streamline the basis on which the retiring allowances of legislators, and the pensions of the President, Prime Minister and Judges, are calculated. The Bill would also make provision for the revision of those retiring allowances and pensions every five years.

Clause 7 of the Bill would amend the Freedom of Information Act, Chap. 22:02, to extend the period within which a public authority is required to inform an applicant of its decision in relation to a request for information. This period would be extended from thirty days to ninety days. A public authority would, however, be required to obtain the approval of the Attorney General before refusing a request and the Attorney General would have ninety days to inform the public authority of his decision. The period during which a request is referred to the Attorney General would not be included in the calculation of the ninety-day period during which the public authority is required to inform the applicant of its decision.

Clause 8 of the Bill would amend the National Insurance Act, Chap. 32:01, to empower the Minister to prescribe, by Order, that certain persons are to be regarded as employed in uninsurable employment during a period specified in the Order.

Clause 9 of the Bill would amend the Central Bank Act, Chap. 79:02, to require the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago to disclose to the Minister of Finance such information pertaining to the human resources and organisational structure of the Bank and such other employment-related information as the Minister may request.

Clause 10 of the Bill would amend the Non-Profit Organisations Act, 2019 (Act No. 7 of 2019) to remove the twelve-month limit on extensions of the time by which an existing non-profit organisation is required to be registered and to allow the Minister to extend, by Order, the time by which an existing non-profit company is required to submit its AML/CFT/PF questionnaire to the Registrar General.

BILL

AN ACT to provide for a tax amnesty in relation to certain revenue laws and to amend the Retiring Allowances (Legislative Service) Act, Chap. 2:03; the President's Emoluments Act, Chap. 2:50; the Prime Minister's Pensions Act, Chap. 2:51; the Judges Salaries and Pensions Act, Chap. 6:02; the Freedom of Information Act, Chap. 22:02; the National

Insurance Act, Chap. 32:01; the Central Bank Act, Chap. 79:02; and the Non-Profit Organisations Act, 2019 (Act No. 7 of 2019)

[ , 2019]

Enactment ENACTED by the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago as follows:

PART I
PRELIMINARY

Short Title 1. This Act may be cited as the Miscellaneous Provisions (Tax Amnesty, Pensions, Freedom of Information, National Insurance, Central Bank and Non-Profit Organisations) Act, 2019.

Tax amnesty 2. (1) For the purposes of this section—
“prescribed period” means the period—
(a) commencing on 15th June, 2019;
and
(b) ending on 15th September, 2019 or such other date as the Minister with responsibility for finance may, by Order, prescribe;

Schedule “revenue law” means a written law specified in the Schedule;

“tax” includes levy.

(2) Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary, there shall be a waiver of the following liabilities in relation to any tax payable under a revenue law:

(a) interest on any outstanding tax due and payable for the years up to and including the year ending 31st December, 2018, where the tax is paid during the prescribed period;

- (b) outstanding interest charged on any tax due and payable for the years up to and including the year ending 31st December, 2018, where the tax is paid during the prescribed period;
- (c) all other penalties due and payable on or in respect of any outstanding tax for the years up to and including the year ending 31st December, 2018, where the tax is paid during the prescribed period;
- (d) all penalties on any outstanding return for the years up to and including the year ending 31st December, 2018, where the return is filed during the prescribed period; and
- (e) all penalties with respect to any return for the years up to and including the year ending 31st December, 2018 and filed prior to 15th June, 2019, where such penalties have not been paid.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, the waiver under this section shall not—

- (a) affect any liability to tax due and payable by a person under a revenue law; or
- (b) apply to any interest and penalties paid prior to 15th June, 2019.

(4) Where a tax or return under a revenue law remains outstanding after the expiration of the prescribed period, the interest and other penalties, which would have been payable in relation to the tax or return, as the case may be, shall be revived and become payable as if waiver under this section had not come into force.

3. The Retiring Allowances (Legislative Service) Act Chap. 2:03 amended is amended—

- (a) in section 2, in the definition of “salary” by inserting after the word “Tobago”, the words “, inclusive of personal allowance and housing allowance but”; and

(b) by inserting after section 6A, the following section:

“Review of retiring allowance

6B. A person is eligible on every fifth anniversary of the date he ceased to be a legislator for a revised retiring allowance calculated on the basis of the salary payable to a legislator on that date.”.

Chap. 2:50 amended
